ARMY SONGS

HE WAS FOUND WORTHY When none was found to ransom me me, He was found worthy! To set a world of sinners free, He was found worthy!

Charun Oh, the bleeding Lambl

To take the book and loose the seal He was found worthy!
To bruise the head that bruised His He was found worthy!

To bridge the gulf 'twist man and God,

He was found worthy!
And save the rebels by His Blood, He was found worthy!

AT THE CROSS THERE'S

Sinner, wheresoe'er than art. At the Cross there's room; Tell the burden of thy heart, At the Cross there's room At the Cross there's room.
Tell in thy Saviour's ear,
Cast away thy every fear,
Only speak, and He will hear;
At the Cross there's room.

Haste thee, wanderer, tarry not, At the Cross there's room; Seek that consecrated spot, At the Cross there's room.

Heavy-laden, sore opprest,
Love can soothe thy troubled breast,
In the Saviour find thy rest,
At the Cross there's room.

A CRY OF NEED
Tune.—I hear Thy welcome voice. Jesus, the sinner's Friend, Who hears our every erv. le with us in our great nee And help us ere we die.

Chorus
Christ, we look to Thee,
Fill our hearts with love,
Give us faith for victory,
Fill all shall meet above,

Jesus, the Fount of Life. We bring the world to Thee; Lord, help us in this dreadful strife To look right up to Thee.

Jesus, Thou King of Peace, Rule in each heart we pray; Lord, may Thy reign on earth begin And never pass away.

TELL IT OUT Tune.—For you I am praying, 227; Song Book, 20.

I bave a Saviour,
He's pleading in Glory,
A dear, loving Saviour,
Thoug earth friends be few, And now He is watching In tenderness o'er me. And, Oh, that my Saviour Were your Saviour, too!

> Chorus For you I am praying, I'm praying for you.

When Jesus has found you, When Jesus has found you, Tell others the story, That my loving Saviour Is your Saviour, too; Then pray that your Saviour May bring them to Glory, And prayer will be answered— 'Twas answered for you!

MORE THAN ALL Tune.-I have pleasure in His service, 171; Song Book, 435, What are now those burning long-oh, so strong within my breast, Longinga for the smile of Jesus,

Longings to be set at rest? When I are my sin and sorrow, Tears of bitter anguish fall; For I know I once loved Jesus More than all: yes, more than all:

Where are now those chains that bound me—

Chains of sin and self and pride?
Hallelujah I Jesus broke them
When I sought His riven side; Now a sweeter, nobler bondage

Doth my raptured soul enthral,

For there's pleasure in His service, More than all: ves. more than all.

WHO WILL COME?
Tune.—I've washed my robes, B.J., No. 335.
My robes were once all stained with sin,

I knew not how to make them clean, "Go wash, I'll make them white as snow."

Chorus
I've washed my robes in Jesus' Blood
And He has made them white as snow.

That promise, "Whosoever wifl," Included me—includes me still.
I came, and ever since I know
His Blood it cleanses white as snow,

Oh, who will come and wash to-day, Till all their sins are washed away; Until, by faith, they see and know Their robes are washed as white as snow?

EVER AT MY SIDE

EVER AT MY SIDE
Thought I had wandered
In sin's path so broad and deep,
Though time I squandered
Sceking joy complete;
Yet the Saviour heard me
When I in repentance prayed,
And the past forgave me;
He my soul did save.

Chorus Now. Jesus, dear Jesus, He is ever at my side; Watching and waiting, All my steps to guide,

Sometimes in the darkness I my path can scarcely see, Yet through the blackness He doth confort me;
Day by day He keeps me
In the hollow of His hand;
And I know He'll lead me

STAFF-CAPTAIN SIMS

Visits the "Last Great West."

The newly-appointed Social Secretary for Canada West loses no time in getting luto touch with the Pacific Coast. He has already visited the "Last Great West," and made himself famillar with conditions himself tapillar with conditions there. On Sunday, July 25th, he, in junction with Adjutant Habkick conducted the meetings in New Westminster and Okala Jails. He was greatly impressed with the condiality of the men and the heartiness of their chainers.

distily of the men and the heartiness of their singing.

At New Westminster the Adjustant visited McKillarney in the concedemned cell, and although the Staff-Captain was only allamed to leach the saw of the sa nim at a distance, he saw he saw enough to see that the condemned man looked upon the Adjutant's visit as a blink of sunshine in a visit as a blink of supshine in actoudy day.

The Staff-Captain also conducted the meetings afternoon and night at Vancouver I. where he had a hearty reception. His talk at night was reception. His talk at night was concerned in the staff of the staff

Looking for You

ROSS, ROLLAND, No. 10656. Age 25. ight 6 ft., waight 150 lbe., blue-grey as, dark brown hatr. Last heard of Sault Ste. Merie, Ont. in Sautt Ste, Marie, Ont.

DuVALL, JAMES, Na. 1869 (allie KENNETTE). Canadan, age 16, hight 6, ft. 5-in, waight 181 lbs, fair complexion, brown hair, blue eyes, single, attending, High School. Midding since Dec. Sci. 1514. Last known address: a disposition. Only son. Has a nervous disposition.

Simcee, Ont. Only sen. Has a nervous disposition. INNEY NUCLARD LANES, No. 1851. 19 years at age, helpit (1.) Agy of the half, age and complexing the half of the

2. Jasper, Ont. 1t is said that he weektil the Macrober Feb. 1713. Fer a time.

The control of the control of the control of the control

The control of the control of the control

WATTERS, MBS, 7206. Res 1717. He control

WATTERS, MBS, 7206. Res 1717. He control

WATTERS, MBS, 7206. Res 1717. He control

MACROBER S, 1718. He control is the control

Heldhi 5 ft, 8 int, drift brown hair and and one on left side of nose, Italy has grey yees and hair is inclined to be red.

MORTH, A. L. TROMAS, NO.

MORTH, A. L. TROMAS, NO.

MORTH, A. L. TROMAS, NO.

155 ibs. English, and fix complexios, grey yees, abrown linft, red-revenish moster

1107 376, 1816. Last known address

18 Peter St. Terratio, Ont. Last control
1107 376, 1816. Last known address

18 Peter St. Terratio, Ont. Last control
1107 376, 1816. Last known address

18 Peter St. Terratio, Ont. Last control
1107 376, 1816. Last known address

1107 376, 1816. L

was HVIII IN 2111 AVOIDE, No. 16107. Blanche, Rage 61, height 6 ft., grey hair, dark yes and complexing, Brighish. On or rived in Canada was a milital. Large of the complexing of the complexity of the complexit Ably with coo Robert Alken.

CHANE, JAMES, Ma. 10075.

CHANE, JAMES, Ma. 10075.

Li Nadati specific was a constructed to the construction of the c orion's Wasse

Aug Dak

MATOR COOK Aug. 14-15; St. Staff-Captain Aug. 14-15; 1 Wallaceburg.

was drowned July 24th, was tain Speller, A the following "The pall side of the hea

"The finite a member at W

volleys over t

FRIEN

the victories Field, and we their labours

MICIAL GAZETTE OF THE SALVATION ADMY IN CANADA AND NEWTOUNDLAND

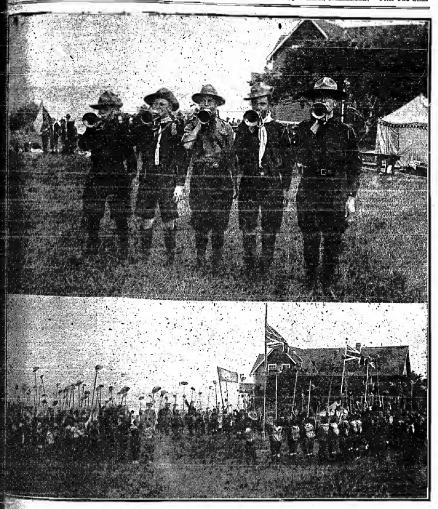

Headquarters: zoz Queen Victoria St., London, E.C.

W. Bramwell Booth, General

Canada East Headquarters: James & Albert Sts., Toronto, Ont.

TORONTO, AUGUST 21, 1915.

W. J. Richards, Commissioner Price Two Cents

Life-Saving Scout Rally at Clarksons

PICTURE—BUGLERS SOUNDING THE ASSEMBLY. BOTTOM PICTURE—THE TERRITORIAL ORGANIZER CALLS FOR HEERS FOR THE CHIEF SECRETARY IN SCOUT FASHION. 165 SCOUTS WERE PRESENT AT THIS RALLY. SAVE THE CHILDREN

Maracts from an Address by MRS. GENERAL BOOTH

at a Conference of the Sunday School Union

COOD Soldier of Terus Christ is always a fighting man. This assertion may sound strange and unnecesing means hardship and labour, and hunger, and wounds, and suffering, and life-surrow, and death.

Is not fighting the very essence of and meaning and hore and marrow of a good soldiery? You cannot have it without. And is not fighting the spirit of war, the liking for it. and the habit of it and the very essence of all true Christian Soldiery likewise? And is it not the ungainsavable reason for the most melanshale and underiable failure of this halm may these hundreds of penra that His Warriors have been so much after this professional kind. accustomed, it is true, to any amount of profession and dissertation, but so little actuated and driven by the overcoming spirit of

What matters it what else soldiers when the hour comes, if they prove and entempt,

A FIGHTING MAN

By The Late General

not the men for the hour, woe to the notion that has counted on them and woo to the soldiers also.

Here is a nation with the enemy in possession, entrenching fast for permanent occupation, rifling and ravishing, hurning and slaying, inflicting every form of oppression and indignity and wrong; and here is an army of soldiers who have sworn to protect and deliver, and if there needs be, to die for their couning and selling, and otherwise looking after themselves. What malters. it that they mix up some of the drill and talk of war with it all? It is not the drill and talk of war that is wanted it is war itself; and for want .. desolation, and do so little to preof it what will the on-looking would and their countrymen and their enecan do if they cannot fight? They mies say? Surely they will cover, are hired to fight, paid to fight rec- their drill and their talk and their koned and relied on to fight, and self-care with loathing, execration,

Look at these fifteen hundred millions of our fellow-men, mostly in the arms and power of the foul usurper of hell who has largely his own way with them, making this possible paradise into the blackest and most hellish perdition here, and dragging multitudes down to the derner depths of all possible wor hereafter

What do lesus and the angels say of this long-standing army of professed Soldiers of Jehovah who look try, pleasuring and idling, and buy- on, and sing, and speak, and read and understand all about the actual condition of things, and are so very contented with the same looking on. and speaking, and reading, and understanding all about the ruin and Vent and hinder and deliver?

What can we say of the professed followers of Jesus Christ who don't fight; fight when they are wanted. fight always, fight their way through the darkness and the devils to the vineible.

Salvation
What cam orthodor, mental?
thing, but can for without excess eration of health, or true solders fight to fight, love the fight, and die

torious, for Soldiers of who know not only how how not only how how to fight, but how to

Y, in this time of our inial, no more importantly inial, no more importantly in the control of t fight, and die
Oh, this Ocean
ing grace—the
I have met during pra age with an absencial kinds of grace are named, and man nameless, but of the grace, this staying per kind of find enduring to the end, I that I have one f. neepted the invitation to nee to-night because my experience as a Salva-Officer has led me to every forefront work of for children or young not to rejuce in any oppor-aiding such work. that I have not found mon! And yet it is dier's grace, carrying all other grace, carrying all other graces, or, us forward all other tion and paradise.

And the last market a dier that we notice is Terribly Lacking many years of my Officer-ay naticipal responsibility work for the ruined daughters and other lands, and in days of my experience, I ed and astonished to find many of the lost jewels God's grace we were able God's grace we were able up from amidst the seum of dies, had been born into homes; many of them had y school scholars and members. Careful investimembers. Careful investime to the conclusion that alon for them had been taking. I found that almembers are the state of the state for as Bible study, and at places of worship

writing the state of the state
at places of worship
writing the state of the state
at places of worship
writing the state of the state
at places of worship
writing the state of the state at the state of en grievonsly neglected.
rening, in the few moments speak to you, I would increased attention to us, a mother, feel a very it part of a child's educaroud especially plead for fittal effort to be made sump people in the region is to train them how to the wice of conscience.

the voice of conseience; then in the laws by which is governed, and by ate may be made use-ten. In short, that our copie be taught their own selly towards that wonder-WHEN WE DON'T SHE Teaching and Training STAND.

any branch of education there all difference between teach-ed training. Training is infin-The story is told of a jumple logical student who one dry the the great evangelist. Mr. Some telling him that the Bute tone the important than teaching. The heard the story of the child who was taken to see a telling him that the Eight or some verses which a ve-inderstand, and about with very much worried. To great man of God project, man, allow me to great years of advice: You must very God, leaves, some dispense. IVEN FROM HOME

Time Romance in France.

Sanday we had a pretty little is in which we are living, makes, Rousseau and Ebre-Acuseau and Ebre-united in marriage, and arriage in a town and arriage in a marriage in a town to show their a town as out two Com-job are Soldiers of this day met each other dur-rangorune. He, one day, bisfortune. He, one day, my other inhabitants of band himself without a biself having wrecked his

when it was over the weary mother, who felt the circumstances gave her a special opportunity of imparting to the child a Jesson in obedience, said, "Don't you think it is a pity that though these lions and tigers can be made to go through such a wonderful performance, my little girl should be so disobedient?"

"Why, mum," replied the child, "I suppose I should do as well as the lions if I had been trained as well."

By the help a God, the bows and impact to the man gave them and gave limited for them.

By the help of God, the boys and girls, the young men and the young women in your Sunday schools, can be trained to recognize the voice of conscience as the voice of their Heaconscience as the voice of their Heavenly Father; can be trained to listen for it, and trained in obedience to that voice. Then in the days when obedience will be so much more difficult to them, when the instituations of unbelief from the world around become so dangerons, they will be forewarned and fore-armed, and in the Light "which lighteth every man that cometh into the world," they will find a star which will unfailingly lead them out from the dark and dismal maze of

A Clear Consciouce

I pray that in the coming years the efforts of your Union may be more successful than ever before in raising up a hand of young men and women who will say with Pant, "Herein do I exercise myself to have always a conscience void of of-fence toward God, and toward men."

I hope no one has suspected me, from any remark I have made, of throwing a slight on religious teach, ing; not for a moment would I do so. But I know only too well how nossible it is for the finest and most painstaking religious work to stop short of Salvation—to stop short of saving the children. Of what avail will be any instruction to the chil-dren with regard to conscience, or anything else, if they are not led to really open their hearts to Him who alone can give nower to obey the voice of conscience? If the second birth be necessary—and Christ said, "Ye must be born again"—then surely it is the supreme duty of parents and teachers and guardians of the young to clearly and patiently set that truth before them.

Let there be plenty of repetition with unswerving constancy; let God's claims upon their hearts be habitation. We offered him the cellar under our hall as a shelter, and he lived there. She, also, the day after, found herself without a roof in cover her head, a shell having knocked down her employer's ing knocked down her employer's house, and from that time she bas shared our board. Now they are united before God and before man. They are going to go forward in the fight with con-ditince, routing on the bale of Himfidence, counting on the help of Him who has promised to be with us right to the end. Not only nur Not only our neighbors alone eame in to witness the little ceremony but also a number of soldiers mony, but also a number of soluters who are billeted with us, and one of these latter gave the newlyweds the following advice: "If you want to be happy, shun the first quarrel."

Do not. I pray, make the mistake ni fearing to present the Narrow Way to them as narrow, or to describe it as a difficult path. The heart of every child, of every young man, and young woman, is the heart of a hero or beroine. Their ambior a hero or heroine. Their ambi-tions will rise to difficulties. We have had a precious glimpse, through the words of a previous through the words of a previous speaker, of the early Christian age, and we know that many of the mar-tyrs who shed their blood were little children, who understandingly laid down their lives rather than

The Greatest Danger

I felt during the years spent in training, for God and The Salvation Army, the seven dear children He has given to us, that what I most needed to fear for them (far more than persecution or difficulty), was the case with which it is possible to make a profession of religion, and to take upon them the name of lesus, without being called to suf-fer anything for so doing. Our re-sponsibility for the children is not to remove the difficulties from hefore their feet, but to teach them where to look for bely to overcome. In this you cannot begin too

Then I would say, Icave the chil-Then I would say, leave the eni-dren free in their religious exer-cises. Your President very beauti-fully said that "The Sunday school was the school of the Spirit"; and, Oh, how wonderfully the Holy Spirit On, how wonderfully the Hoty Spirit of Goil — which He gives to us more willingly than we give our little ones bread—how wonderfully He teaches the children! And so would say, let them be free; and, above all, let them—as soon as they ean lisp—let them pray in their own words; let them bring their own words; let them bring their own difficulties to God. It is difficult, perhaps impossible, for some grown-up people to understand the difficulties

And, out of my experience through that thirty years of work, and espe-eially from my own experience in the Sunday school of the home, I would say, give them a whole Bible.
While our children were young it was the Old Testament that had While our children were young it was the Old Testament that had such an intense interest for them. When I meet those few of the kings of Judah and Israel who won through, I shall thank them for the of the child, or the terrors of the child, or the things that to the child loom so large; and so they cannot voice their needs for them. Let them speak for themselves, in their own words, as the little darling did who said, "Lord, help me to laugh and not to ery when mother washes me in the morning."

Give Them a Whole Bible -:

through, I shall thank them for the blessing they brought to the child-ren, and praise God for the won-derful way He saved up for us that Old Testament history. Yes, give the children a whole Bible. I heard the other day of one of the devoted young people who have given themselves for our Salvation Army Work, that in speaking of the experiences of her conversion, she said, "I was very fond of reading, and we had few books; before I was cleven I think I read the Bible through four times, except the clos-ing chapters of the Gospels, and I ing chapters of the Gospels, and I could never read those because I knew that Jesus died for me, and I felt that miless I had answered to that sacrifice, I did not dare to read the story." Who would have suspected such feeling?

Distinct Purnose

How wonderfully God guides our children! I think one of the great-est things we have to fear is that where the Story is very often re-peated to them it loses its freshness and becomes like a worn-out song.
I would beseech of you, as you repeat that Story, and as the children go over the pages, ever keep in mind a distinct aim and purpose to lead them to the response, to that offering which they can best make while they are young and their hearts are tender. Oh, believe in the conversion of the tiny children! As to disobey conscience, the child is old enough to go to the Saviour of orn enough to go to the Saviour of sinners. May God help you and in-spire you by His Holy Spirit for this great work, have given them a better bit, given by Jesus: "Seek ye first the King-dom of God and His righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you."-F. Carrel, Adjutant. AND WE HAVE THE SAME

This was excellent counsel, but I have given them a better bit

Dr. Talmage, in one of his ser-mons, told the following story: The late Dr. Cranage showed me a house at Wellington, Shropshire, where the Lord had appeared in a wonderful dream to a poor woman who lived there. She was sick, and poor to the last point of destitution. One day word came to her that the woman who had waited on her and cared for her had died. The poor cared for her had died. The poor invalid lay helpless upon her couch, wondering what would become of her. In that mood she fell asleep. In her dreams, she said, the Angel of the Lord appeared, and took her into the open air, and pointed in one of bread, and in another direction there were mountains of butter, and in another direction there were mountains of all kinds of worldly mountains of all kinds of worldly supply. The angel said to her: "Woman, all these mountains be-forg to your Father, and do you think He will let you. His child, hunger and die?" Dr. Cranage told me that by some Divine impulse he went to that destitute home, saw the suffering there, and cared for her all the way through.

THE WEEK'S BEST STORY

SELECTED FROM THE ARMY'S PRESS

THE DUMMY AND THE SEOUEL

A STORY FROM ONE OF THE ARMY'S CRIMINAL SETTLE-

nov upon which the recumbent form apparently of a dead person was-laid, covered with a new white cloth. These bearers were followed by a small knot of women, then a further erowd of settlers. Unaware of the death of anyone within, the Officer's wife held up the women, who were seemingly in great distress, and questioned who the dead person was. Little could be understood from the reply, and one by one they rejoined the mournful procession as it passed the gates of the Settle-

The whole thing being so inexplicaable, a position was taken up from which a watch could be kept. The which a watch could be kept. The crowd passed on chanting a funeral dirge, to a spot about half a mile distant when the charpoy with its burden was put on the ground.

The procession now began a ow march round, the weird chanting ever increasing in volume as the pace grew quicker, until at last it-developed into what appeared a trot. Only the more robust could continue, so the stragglers, as they dropped out, sat where they fell and continued their shouting as long as the ceremony lasted.

After perhaps fifteen minutes, the one who now assumed the lead, with

In astunishment the Officers and was laid to rest by the Officers watched from their point of observation. Those who now remained the by the corpse, with incantations of a different nature, committed it to the flames. The charpoy shared the same fate. A little heap was then made of the sakes that remained and littless covered, with a mound of the lindian "Was Cry."

APPROACHING the Officer's earth plastered farefully over, were intended to be a permanent memor-four men were seen carrying a char-ial of the one whose funeral cere-ial of the one whose funeral cereearth plastered carrently over, wear-intended to be a permanent memor-ial of the one whose funeral cere-mony had been thus celebrated.

The mourners now returned to their homes still sorrowing, while-later in the evening those who fied into the jungle also returned, probably after performing some pujas for the dead one. At all events that evening all went to rest feeling that observed, was that of a dummy made

he had presumed to make the body of a man, the work only of Par-meshwa (i.e. God). Before the end the poor stricken wife was told that recovery was doubtful, burtif he got; well the sick one would be always.

blind. "That malters little," she replied, one win now assumed the lead, with a wind whoop, dashed away and headed off in the direction of the plungle, followed by those who still kept up the performance, In assumishment the Officers watched from their point of observation. Those who now remained with the still the st

the proper thing had been done.

During the subsequent inquiries. it was discovered that the figure lywhom all the ceremonies had been up to represent one who had just died in prison. There the proper formalities could not be observed, so this opportunity had been seized and justice done to the dead. Equally strange was the sequel which occurred a week later. Within this period the man who had preingered the dummy was taken in, re-lingered but a few days, forsaken by all (except The Salvation Army Of-ficers), as devil-possessed, because he had presumed to make the body

A NEW START. ing for his father to from work. Picture at who had to work away all day, coming back. How a London Clerk Conquered a Difficulty. tired and weary, hav fire and get tea rea and little Wally; then took the words of wisher the

Cry,

THE SPIRIT OF HOLE

A clerk engaged in a London ac-countant's office was one day in-structed by his employer to ascertain the financial condition of a certain branch business connected with a

He set to work at once, as the matter was urgent; but, owing to some error in the calculations, the end of the day arrived and the task was far from complete. The emexpressed himself accordingly, to the vexation of the clerk, who quickly made up his mind what he

And so it was that very early next morning, some hours, in fact, before office hours hegan, he presented himself at the door of the building, muster at the door of the building, and, awakening the housekeeper, asked to he admitted. His request was compiled with, and he at once set to work. Strange as it may appear, however, as he began to turn over the pages of the ledger almost the first strange that has a his most the first strange that was the the first thing that met his gaze was the mistake that had caused all the trouble of the previous day.

He closed the book, and returning to his desk later on made out a statement which was ready on his employer's desk by the time that gentleman arrived at the office, and so pleased was he at the smart piece of work that he rewarded his clerk with a cheque for a substantial

Now this is the course every defeated or discouraged man must adopt if he is to win in 1915-16. He audy, if he is to win in 1915-10. The must value each day at its real worth and especially as an opportunity for a fresh attempt to conquer the diffi-culties of a day or week before.—

culties of a day or week before.

S. A. A.

HE WAITED IN VAIN.

A Trying Time for a Poor Father.

A little chap was forsaken by one who should be his best friend—mother—when less than two years of age. Ensign S. A. Smith saw him running wild, on the chamber of the many harden as a blunders.

THE visit of the Hamilton HE die of the Hamilton III. Band to Dennyille was a distinct success. Arriving on the afternon train, the Bandsmen were met at the station by the Officers, Comrades and friends of the Corps, After a march through the town to the a march through the town to the Hall, an excellent supper, provided by the Sisters of the Corps, was partaken of. This was followed by an Open-air in the town, from which we proceeded to a Grand Musicale held in the Grace Metho-diet Church. Mr. Rows, who was in dist Church. Mr. Rows, who was in the chair, paid some very enchurging compliments to the work of The Army, and the Band rendered a number of well executed items, including "Commonwealth," "English Melodies," and "Echoes of the Congress." Vocal solos were also given by Bandsman Barlow. Captain Clayton, the accompanying Officer, ably piloted the proceedings for the week-end. Sunday meetings were held in the Grand Theatre. A were held in the Grand Theatre. A were held in the Grand Theatre. A good musical programme was rendered by the Band in the afternoon, when Dr. Laidner took the chair, and at night we held a great Salvation meeting, the address being given by Captain Clayton. The day was finished with a short musicale was naisted with a short; musicale in the park, and although very warm all the week-end, the Bands-men had a successful and blessed time -- Anon

The Edmonton Band has just The Edmonton Band has just concluded a special wcekend campaign, under the leadership of Major Hay and Adjutant J. Habkirk. Our efforts were greatly facilitated by the kinduces of the C.P.R. in providing an special car for our travelling and slepting, and because of this we were able to get more effort into our Saturday and Sunday meetings.

We left Edmonton at 2.15 p.m. on Saturday and our car was left at Leduc, where the Band was given a nublic welcome by the Mayor. After public welcome by the Mayor. After a suitable speech in return by MajorHay, we gave them a musicale lasting for an hour, which was greatly enjoyed by the great crowd of townspeople and country folks who had gathered for the occasion. and who responded liberally to the collections. The next train south collections. The next train soiting switched on our ear and took us to Wetaskiwin, where, after having supper, which was provided by Captain and Mrs. Thompson in The Army Hall, we gave a musicale in

Prayer Topica
For their Majesties the King

1. For their Majesties the King and Queen.
2. For His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.
3. For all members of the Imperial Government.
4. For members of overseas Governments, 5. For all military leaders, 5. Staff of General Booth and his

7. For medical and nursing staffs. 8. For wounded, dying, and the bereaved.

9. For poor people in the war area who are suffering unspeakable horrors.

10. That the poor blood-drenched world may come out of its haptlem purified.

Daily Bible Readings MONDAY,-David and Goliath, 1

MONDAY—David and Goliath, 1 Samuel 17:38-51. TUESDAY—Golieth's Challenge. 1 Samuel 17:1-11. WEDNESDAY—David's Visit to the Camp. 1 Samuel 17:1-27. THURSDAY—The Ghallenge Ac-cepted. - Samuel 17:1-28. FRIDAY.—Sprintal Victory, 2 Timothy 4:1-8 the Methodist Church, which was crowded by a very interested and appreciative audience, as well as by the Local C. O.'s, Captain and Mrs. Phompson, and their Corps.

BAND NOTES

We then boarded our car, and we then boarded our car, and about 11.30 p.m., we were picked up by the Edmonton and Winnipeg train and switched off at Camrose, is one of our Baby Corps.

which is one of our Baby Corps.
On Sunday morning we commenced operations in Camrose,
After the morning Open-sir, we had a fine united service in the Methodist Church. In the after-Mathodist Church. In the afternoon a grand musicale was given in the Opera House, under the chairmanship of the local M.P.P., Mr.
Smith, who is a staunch supporter of The Army. There were also present representatives from the W.
C.T.U., who spoke very warmly of our work. The meeting was filled to overflowing.

At night we had our service in the Presbyterian Church, which also was overcrowded, so much so that Adjutant Habkirk held an overflow service in the theater and had an service in the theatre and had an enthusiastic gathering of something enthusiastic gathering of something over 300, which speaks for itself.. At night, after the service, we all went to the theatre for a final praise meeting, which in every way was a dis-tinet success. We got through hefore II n.m. and got aboard our car and went to sleep, or at least, to rest, and were picked up about 430 on Monday morning and got back to Edmonton about 7 a.m.—R. Mc-Bain, Band Sergeant.

Bain, Band Sergeant.

On Thursday, July 29th, the Brantford Band and Songwers combined for a splendid united effort.

A very interesting programme of, mostly, youl and instrumental music was given under the title of "Echoes of the Congress." Special mention, however, must be made of the much-enjoyed item — fancy march and club swinging by a party the much-enjoyed item — fancy march and club swinging by a party of six of the senior girls. Owing to the great heat there was not a very large attendance, but those present enjoyed themselves greatly.

The Cornwall Band visited Move The Cornwall Band visited Mor-risburg for the week-end of July 315t-August 1st. A Musical Festival was held on the Saturday evening, and on Sunday evening Ensign Goodhew took the meeting, his les-son on "Life" being very interesting and a means of great blessing to all. Finances for the week-end were very good.

Songster Brigade of Winnipeg II.

The Praying League

THE GENERAL'S CALL TO PRAYER

(By Mrs. Blanche Johnston)
It is hard to realize this perfectly lovely summer Sunday morning that there is strife, bloodshed, and unuterable woe in this heautiful world. The bidmy breeze that fans me in my upper porch; the shadows aslant in the garden below; the glittering sunshine upon the waving trees; the breath of sweet flowers; the glad song of birds; the light-crowned rills; the daneing waters of the adjacent bay; the glorious bite, dome above, with its mounting, foam of fleety, anowy cluids; all, all are whispering: "God is love. God is faithful."

And yet this wunderful wurld of beauty is full of sorrow and strife and pain unspeakable. And we feel

SATURDAY.—God a Sure Refuge.
Psalm 46.
SUNDAY.—A Divine Proteetion.
Psalm 91.
Psalm 91.

In his heart-stirring appeal (which we quote), he urges earnestly a greater devotion to prayer.

. The manner and words of the peti-tion we should offer puzzles us oftentimes. We do not know how to pray until the Spirit gives us ut-terance; But eraving the Holy Spirit as our Guide and Director, we should pray earnestly. To our finite understanding the only answer for-which we would plead would be a speedy yletory, to our Empire and Allies.

But we do not know what the Divine nut-working is to be, and our request must ever bear the stamp: "Thy will be done."

But let us seek God with whity of heart, and confessions of institute and individual weak for but

Captain Cowan

Colled to India.

ble a Salvation Soldier, wining Opposition.

I would not any the sized him that God in be an Officer. He led about it that be the walled two miles to business to interview the result was that he a he work. His folka opposed to this step, a liather, who had see alm and promised with unwavering control love. Let up pay saw and the happy say was shall petch span loss those who best the had sad and terrible titis. sustenance and grace hather, who had one of land and promised actiony on it and set in business for himself. this thus thwarted was to be liking of Mr.

The General says: 7, the says to make in spot in the condition of the cond in its own way.

"Let us seek line confession and party.

Deputy Mayor Rounding.

Code to India.

FYAIN GEORGE

EYAIN of EORGE

EYAIN has been acded for missionary serded for missionary sermissionary ser missionary ser missiona But nothing could shake the young man's resolve. He felt that his first duty was to God, and dared not disobey His call.

not disobey His call.

On the eve of farewelling for the Training College he proposed holding family prayer for the first time in his home. That was a memorable occasion, and largely as a result of that interest of the control of t occasion, and largely as a result of that victory and his continued pray-ers on their behalf, six of the family were subsequently converted. His father died a short time ago pro-fessing failt in Jesus. One sister went among the Indians as a Mis-sionary and is now preparing to go to Africa, while a brother is about to enter the ministry. Thus God has amored the Captain's faith and consecration, and he sets his face consecration, and he sets his face towards India with high hopes of further and greater victories in that dark land.

Anywhere for Jesus.

Captain Robert Barker is another Officer who has heard and answered Officer who has heard and answered the call to labor on Foreign Mission Fields. It was at a great Missionary Demonstration in the Massey Hall conducted by Commissioner Mapp when he was Chief Secretary of Canada, that Captain Barker publicly consecrated himself for service along the heathen. The Captain took the part of a Chinaman that night and he descended from the platform in his flowing robes, pigtail and all, and knelt at the front with many others. Perhaps that is why he volunteered in the first instance for China. The Army's instance for China. The Army's opportunity in that great country has not yet come, however, and as the Captain has the spirit of "Auywhere for Jesus," he is just as pleased with his acceptance for India.

Induarry studious young Officer is the Captain and as soon as he knew for suffer that India was to be his future field the commenced to learn Hindustani. He also has a most wonderful notebook in course of preparation, in which is packed all sorts of information about the great land he is going to—its area, resources, geographical features, Army activities amongst its varied peoples, and many other than In his spare noments, too, he has heen learning how to make a turban out of teu yards of cotton cloth.

The Captain came,out-of finigary. A very studious young Officer is yards of cotton cloth.

The Captain came out of faigary sixty case ago, and less beath for take.
Secretary to the late Commissioner Rees and also to our present Commissioner.

allins and a Soldier

Mr. J. K. McInnis.

Regina Friends.

Deputy Mayor Rounding, a well-known and highly respected citizen of Regina, presided at the Weleome Meeting of Commissioner and Mrs. Sowton, and on behalf of the city and its people, warmly welcomed them. Mr. Rounding is no stranger to the work of The Army and has to the work of The Army and has a very warm appreciation of the Organization. It might be of interest to mention that he is a Captain in the Sin Battalion, which is now being recruited in Saskatchewan, and expects soon to go overseas and take part in the great fight in France. France.

Among other distinguished cities Among other distinguished citizens on the platform was Mr. J. K. McInnis, one of Regina's oldest etitzens. He also had a good word to say for The Army when seconding a vote of thanks at the conclusion of the Commissioner's address. sion of the Commissioner's address. He spoke of the early days of The Army in Regina and said he had watched its progress, amidst difficulty, with very great interest. Mr. Melninis is a very interesting public speaker and being blessed with a keen sense of humor, often sitrs his audience to roars of laughter, greatly to the good of their health, if there is anything in the old motto, "Laugh and grow fat."

A Native Local. Along the Alaskan Coast The Army has established a number of Corps among the native Indians and a good work is going on under the direction of Staff-Captain Smith, There is only one other white Officer in that District, and so the majority of the Corps are in charge of native Sergeant-Majors. The photo on this page is that of Sergeant-Major Tecumsch Collins and a Soldier of the Klawack Corps, Prince of Wales Island. The devoted and self-sacrifieing labors of our Native Local Officers is worthy of the highest praise.

Comforting the Sorrowing.

"Adjutant Mollet visits the hosni-"Adjutant Mollet visits the nospi-tal at Saint-Jean-du-Gard (France), where she performs regular and ar-duous service with a great deal of zeal and love.

"The work of our Nurses is not "The work of our Nurses is not imited, simply to medical attention, as one may judge by the following extractly from a letter from this officer: "Unfortunately, we have had several men die. A few hours after the internment of the last one that went, his young wife arrived from the Charente Inferieure District, only to find a newly-filled grave. All my heart went out to this poor begrace of God, to help and encourage her."

Cantain Barker

Salvationist Prisoners

The Salvationists, who are prisoners of war on the other side of the ers of war on the other side of the Rhine, do not forget the Supreme Canse, and they lose no opportunity of talking about Salvation to their companious in captivity. Proof of this is given in the following extract from a letter from Brother Collet, of the Villette Corps in France: "I am glad to be able to tell you that the German authorities have sent here with me three other Salvasent here with me three other Salva-tionists, the brother of Lieutenant Chevallier, Comrade Dupre, from Havre, and Conwarde Pouthieu, from Croix. We have some good meet-lings and would be grateful if you could send us some songs and a fev Biblical treaties, Yesterday (Sun-day) we had a magnificent meeting day) we had a magnificant meeting in the open, with more than a thousand auditors, who listened to us with the greatest attention,"—En Avant (France).

Wedded at Windsor.

Wedded at Windsor.

Brother Gordon Syphrey and Sister Rosa Garrard were united in matrimony on Wednesday evening, June 30th, in the presence of a erowded audience at the Windsor (Ont.) Citadol. The ecremony was conducted by 'Adjutant Laymanthe bride and groom being supportations of the Company of the Comp ed by the bride's brother and sister. Sergeant-Major Hancoek congratulated the newly-weds on behalf of the Corps, and gave them some advice concerning their future happiness.—A. W. S.

Bro. and Sister Syphrey, recently wedded at Windsor, Ont.

Spirit"

DEPRONAL EXPERIENCE OF A SALVATION ARMY SOLDIER.

Last winter I had an extraordi-Last winter I had an extraordi-nary experience that brought the above passage of Scripture very, forcibly to my mind. One day, as I was going to work on my bicycle I saw an old woman coming along the road. Something seemed to say to me, "Go and ask ner if she knows her sins are all forgiven." But on I went, trying to quench the Spirit. I began to say, "Oh, it will look so silly for me to go right up to the woman and ask her that." up to the woman and ask her that. She was carrying a large basket and the still small voice said, "Go and ask her to let you carry it for her, and when you are going along the road you will have a hue chance to speak to her on spiritual matters."

She was a person I would hardly ever think of speaking to at any time. So on I went, right against my will. Something seemed to keep the bieyele going. I believe it was the devil. If my memory serves me right, I think this took place on a Thursday or Friday, and it kept bothering me so much that on the following Sunday I made up my following Sunday I made up my mind that I would go and speak to her at all costs. So I got on my bigyele and went to her place, in a good snowstorm, a distance of about a mile and a half. This will give the reader a faint idea of how troubled I was.

When I arrived at the house, to my surprise I discovered she had my surprise I discovered she had gone away. You can imagine how I felt. I made up my mind that I would write to her, providing I could obtain her address.

I kept saying to myself: "Perhaps will never get an opportunity to speak to her again, and her blood will be on my skirts. I did not know will be on my skirts. I did not know what to do. I did not feel like testi-fying. I felt that the Lord would not forgive me if she went to hell, because I did not warn her. I went on trying to forget this and praying to God to forgive me, on the following Wednesday I, with several other comrades, was on my way to a small place to sell Christmas "War Crys," and hold some open-air meetings. We had hardly got scated in the train when one of our party told me that this person I felt I should have spoken to was dead. The blow staggered to was dead. The blow staggered me. I did not say anything to any person about this happening, but went on trying to forget. And I can say that I did almost forget that say that I did aimost forget that day, and we had some fine meetings. I heard so many stories after I got home that I was almost eonfounded. I heard that this woman had been frozen to death. I heard that she died in Toronte; but no one seemed to know anything definite.

That night I went to the police station, but could get no satisfaction there. I went to the undertakers, because I had heard she was there. Here I was unsuccessful in obtaining any satisfactory information

It was a long time after that be-fore I knew for sure about this old woman, and during that time my

At last one night, as I and a comrade were going home from the meeting. I saw the old woman going along the street. I left my friend, and said, "I am going to speak to that woman." So I started to run after her. When I got near she turned around and said some things that were not very nice. She thought that I was some one after her for

(Concluded on Column 4.)

"Quench Not The IONES: DOWN AND OUT

DRUNKARD, GAMBLER AND WIFE-BEATER, HE FINDS SAL-VATION THROUGH THE EFFORTS OF LEAGUE. OF MERCY WORKERS

By CAPTAIN E CLAYTON

doomed to early disappointment.

When only a boy Bill liked the tossing of pennles and mixing with the worst on the street, better than home life. He also played truant from school and this soon led him. into the path of dishonesty. Very mother, or any other friend mastered young Jones.

mastered young Jones.
At the age of eleven he was started off as an errand boy to see if the chauge would help him; but this situation only lent itself to bring out the bad that Jones had in, Here we find the blackhemous tongue mastered him, and the first drop of liquor entered into his system to fire his being full of frenzy and foolishness. His ill-tame soon spreadhe became known as "Jones, the down-and-out." The next step of interest was the taking of his bride interest was the taking of his bruce to the altar when only nineteen. Many vows were made to seal this event, but, alas! the past had got too great a hold upon his nature. The home comprised one room, and soon after the marriage, through one day's drunkenness, the whole supply of wedding gifts were sent flying. The throwing of a burning lamp was the next insult that this young wife had to contend with. This caused much pain, and the sears can be noticed to-day. Readiand soon after the marriage, through bring the brutal spirit into subjection, nor even to decent living with

Now Jones was, according to his own idea, just the man to choose as eandidate for election. Hence at one election time he sought in the public election time he solight in the public house and elsewhere to demonstrate his ability along this line. The day arrived—Jones was filled with ex-pectation. Night only found him defeated and naturally when money was all gone, manhood lost, and devilishness foremost, his wife sufferei, also children.

On arriving home they-mother and two children-were dragged out of bed, and in their auxiousness to escape his kicks, rushed to the win-dow, and were barely stopped from jumping in to the small alley below by a sturdy policeman, who arrived on the spot and rendered his strong yet kind assistance, Jones now found himself for twenty days in prison. The lonely hours, instead of bringing back his reason, only seemed to beget anger and malice. He swore vengeance on those who put him there. His nature was heated like a furnace, and as a beast rushes to the cooling springs of water, so his mind throbbed for the liquor that would fill, to his thinking, his life would fill, to his thinking, his life with joy.

A new life seemed to come before him when he left the cell, but that in itself was only a further step into vice. Yet its newness captivated Jones. Gambling dens became his haunts, and, under the power of drink he would win and lose—more offer the late.

often the latter His wife states that on one oreasion he came home with a very heavy debt through betting. Not finding any money, he stripped the

to death. After this had been re-vealed to the police another term awaited hint, but his patient and long-suffering wife paid his fine with money Borrowed, and that would have to be paid back by hard labour at the washith.

Now his life seemed hopeless. The home was empty, eight children starving for want of food, and the wife to whom he had so often made wife to whom he had so often made promises was almost in the grave. Surely this would arouse his man-hood and help him to turn over a new leaf. The publis-house keepers had even lost faith in him. What could he do? At this juncture a friend came to the rescue.

One day, when they were seated on the floor waiting for something or some one to bring food or help, or some one to bring food or help, this friend came along and suggest-ed, after a long talk to Jones, that he take his family to Canada and start a new life in a new country. start a new life in a new country.

At once the money question came along; this was settled, and after years of circling around old Bristol, "Jones, the No Good," started two and a half years ago to the land of the Maple Leaf.

the Maple Leat.

Oh! the re-union when they arrived in Hamilton, the beam of happiness that filled the faces of childshone forth from Mrs. Jones. Work was found, and for the first few weeks everything went sailing along smoothly. But the devil had not lost his target, and through some hap-penings in the shop, Jones met his real foe again in the drink.

His wile had been plodding along by working at cleaning offices, etc. and was somewhat surprised to find her hirsband drunk for the first time in Ganada. Jones found that with the addition of spirits to herrit drove him further down than ever, and soon, his home, which had become very comfortable, was again empty. He was arrested, but again his wife intervened, and paid the fine. Time drifted on, and fusally the great crash of his life came. Truly, he proved at last the wise words, "It by working at cleaning offices, etc. proved at last the wise words, "If I sin, then thou markest me," and "at last it biteth like a serpent."

The final trenzy came on a Saturday night, when he sold all the things he could lay his hands on, and then returned to abuse his wife. The eruel kicks and jabs will ever he eruch kicks and jabs will ever be fresh in her memory. Arrest fol-lowed, and he was sent down to the Barton Street Jail for thirty-one days, with hard labour added, Many experiences came upon the man in this place, and one he will man in this place, and one he will ever remember, nanchy, when The Salvation Army League of Merey went: to conduct one of their regu-lar weekly meetings in the prison. After the service, a question was asked if any would like to be prayed for. Out of sixty, Jones' hand was Hited, the returned to his cell—the heavens seemed as brass—his tongue was thick; he could not peak; but for the first time the history of the first time the history of the distance of the first time the history of his discharge, when he came right to The Army Hall, and sobbed his way to the Mercy. Seak, making a full confession of his sins, Truly they were many; but the parson of God was ready, and the Satvation of Jr., Collagrous Cosp.

the children father; is wife, with the greather with the openals and the with the openals and the greather with the greather w

A RHYMING REST Successful Tag Day at Sec.

We'te quiet folks at pros But please don't that m Some things we have he We'd like to let you hav One night we had a "laye Of dishes, towed, and set To help he up the Quaren Which were not "up to a

Then Monday was a Tag be And all the folks got her We sold about eight binder And lots of cash we begut

The folks were so deligned.
At the success we had.
We had an extra meme.
To show that we were put
We had a great rejoining.
Which was joined in by

And those who were not be Had a march around fell Tuesday we raid out diffe

And didn't we led gy
When we had a little same
To help us on our way

Still better news well iel ye Backsliders coming home. Taking their cross up button Never again to roam

To God we give the glay For all things He has have We'll still fight on, and pris

ICE CREAM SOCIAL

The Meetings at Fatt I The Meetings at Just 2 Corps for the wret-roots 1 were a means of prot bless at though many of the Solon out of town, we had should be frigader Michael and the Grean Social wis should be frigader Michael for the means of the men of the means show how he has means show how he had so the first means of the first means to the people of this distrated

QUENCH NOT THE SHE

Something otherwise than a message from God.

I decided to get the bother, who he seem to considered to get the seem to considered the seem to consider the see

NTERNATIONAL INTELLIGENCE

AND KONDS UCHED MISSIONARY

among the Pans of work among the Pans of Joins, who number 28,000, it is infancy (writes Jeya in the Indian 'War Cry'), here been many delays, and only things are beginning to the property of nd équital India is untouched, withingings of the people is right and thus a new language is to the many used by The Salaithing. Many parts of our art wild in the extreme. The origin visiting some Pan villagin little away, I passed where what killed a cow and to-day in the salaithing that will be a cow and to-day in the salaith and the salaithing that we have a salaithing that we of the Sahib also.

Pans are a very brave and sale people. They carry the brain are forwood out of the stand do many things that resists do not. The Pan Sattle the title we are known by sectified the day when those sections are the day when those *Pans will become brave Sol-belieus Christ. Buildings are recied, a well is being dug, about one hundred Pans and mare working on a large tank the Centre Settlement, where my plantations are being shall want some Officers soon good nerves and a great love wild to reap this promising har-and we need your prayers.

MING OF BURMA

MITING THE FLAG IN

exping campaign of The manafum Work in Rangoon is 5.00 wed with much interest, this is the worst time of seing that most of the Office of the worst time of seing that most of the Office of the worst time of seing that most of the Office of the Workshot of Stind work. The worst of the initial work had slithin made a profound asson the pearers on the see stitch made a profound as non the hearers on the minus might. So much so my neeting has been attendarder success than the vie. The Colonel admetic house in the Y. M. Suday evening, after the stree. The people sat as to their sects for more beer. One man asked how Colonel was going to speak, ha about twenty minutes. list wasn't long enough.

I least to speak for an more an never tire of listen-

in, a lady met us the at travelled the world to my husband that we never see The Army here; how strange, when they are in every other part of the world where we have travelled." She was interested to hear of the opening and desired to be visited

Y. P. WORK IN JAPAN

GRATIFYING RESULTS OF A WEEK'S SPECIAL EFFORT

It was thought that the visit of It was thought that the visit of Commissioner Whatmore would not be complete without seeing, hearing and speaking to the children and Young People, and so a Young People's Demonstration was arrang-

People's Demonstration was arrang-ed for Saturday, July 3rd.

The Wakyogukudo Hall was packed on this obcasion, and the children from various Corps ren-dered about half a dozen items, which interested and pleased the Commissioner very much. At the Commissioner very much. At the beginning of the meeting Commissioner Mapp read out the results of the recent Young People's Week, and commissioned twenty-seven Young People's Locals, and received twenty-seven Corps Cadets. The sight of these two companies of

HEARD IN PETROGRAD

A REMARKABLE MEETING— THE COUNTESS AND HER QUEST

On his way to the Far East Commissioner Whatmore visited Petrograd, and relates the following regarding what he heard there about The Army's Work:—
A few months ago, the Quarters, which are also used for public meetings, were direct the contract of the programmer.

which are also used for public meet-ings, were, during the progress of a meeting raided by the police authorities. Ensign Boije (our chief Officer working in Russia) related Officer working in Russia) related the facts to me.

"We were reading the Bible," she said, "when the police suddenly appeared on the scene, and demanded 'What book is it that you are reading from?" 'The Bible,' she answered said. swered calmly.

"What are you reading from the

What are you reading from the Bible? was the next question. "Thou art weighed in the bal-ances and found wanting," was the startling reply.

"I don't want to know that," was the answer of the somewhat startled officer of the law; 'what is your new Young Peoples Locals and Corps Cadets coming forward in their turn and standing in a line across the platform and receiving their commissions, acceptance letters, etc., was indeed a very encouraging spectacle.

Sergt.-Major Coombs and Indian Soldiers of Karheen, Alaska.

These Young People's Locals and Corps Cadets represented less than one-third of the total number inst made in connection with the Young People's Week, the total results of which will no doubt be interesting.
The Territorial figures for the Young People's Week (May 16th to 23rd) are as follows:—

Open-air meetings held 720 Y. P. indoor meetings held 836
Y. P. indoor meetings held 836 Attendances at indoor meetings54.836
Conversions 2.874
*Sunday School Register 1,098
*Junior Soldiers' Roll 537 *Corps Cadets' Roll 80
*Corps Cadets' Roll 80
*Y. P. Local Officers 71
*Increases.

Commissioner Whatmore spoke in a very fatherly way to the children and Young People, and they were all very happy to have him all to themselves for one night,—Gunpei Yamamuro, Chief Secretary.

The Norwegian captain of the boat on which Mrs. Booth travelled to Norway spoke with no little pride of the time when he was a Soldier of the Custom House Corps and used stavelled the world the Custom mouse corps and uses and "Oh, how nice to beat the big drum. Though going to sea took bim away from the ever seen in Ran. Corps, he still says The Salvation army is the best thing in the world.

By this time the Quarters were by this time the Quarters were surounded by a force of police, and the business of examination and the taking of the names and addresses of every one present was proceeded with. The police remained in possession from 9 p.m. until 2 o clock in the morning, during which time they telephoned to the police station the various particulars ob-tained. The correctness of the state-ment was verified by police visits in the various districts before the congregation was allowed to depart. Salvation-Army-like, the Soldiers spent the time in singing, much to the surprise of the police officers, who had never before had to deal with so happy a crowd of "prison-The result of the raid was that all persons present were fined, and in default of payment committed to prison; but the penalties were au-nulled by order of the Minister of the Interior. Now the local Council subscribes two hundred roubles a month towards the support of our Slum Centre.

In these rooms I conducted a meeting. They were packed. There were present two countesses, a baroness, a doctor of philosophy, and a retired Government official, besides the humbler folk who make up our following.

I heard an interesting story, in I heard an interesting story, in which the baroness reierred to in the above paragraph figured. She had long heen disappointed in religious professors, but in a conversation with Ensign Boile, had said, that if she ever saw the religion of Jesus Christ actually lived out, she would believe in Jesus. Some weeks later a Russian man, with his wife and four children, returned to Russia from Brazil, in which country he had contracted consumption. They arrived in Petrograd in a pitiable condition, the man dying, and the wife and children totally approvided for, and without means to proceed to the homes of their friends in Siberia In this plight the poor woman be-Salvation Messenger" (the Russian "War Crv) and with the hone that if she could but find The Army she would be helped, sought the cers. Nobody to whom she en-quired knew of The Army or of its COFF whereabouts until one day she ospied a woman-Officer, and without knowing that she was a Salvationist enquired of her how she could find

This led to rooms being taken and provision being made for the family, while the Officer took turn with each other in nursing the dying man, night and day, until his death. Four Salvation Army lasses carried his hody to the grave, and phimately the wife, with her children, was sent they are now comfortably settled.

Meanwhile, the baronness became eers' work, and herself visited and assisted the poor jamily. She saw what her soul longed for, became convinced of the reality of the religiou of Jesus, and at the close of my Meeting, with tearful eyes, she said, "I too want the mercy of God."

FIRST CONGRESS IN JAVA

Further news is to hand concernion the first Native Courtess held in ing the arst Native Congress held in Java. Major Richards, the General Secretary, writes: "This interesting and helpful event was held at our and helpful event was need at our Native Corps at Poerwooidgo, and was conducted by Lieut, Colonel de Groot. The arrival of the Delegates was heralded by the hearty, if not melodious, strains of the Native melodions, strains of the Native Brass Band.

"People of many races attended the meetings, including Javanese, Ambonese, Chinese, and Africans. They evinced considerable interest, and asked many questions concern-ing the True Light.

"A great open-air meeting in the matter than the properties of the properties of the pro-market-place concluded the 110155 gatherings."

The Life-Saving Scout Movement. The Life-Saving Scott Movement, recently introduced to the United Status Territory, is making splendid headway. Already, in the Eastern States, twenty-five Troops, with a membership of three hundred and thirty-five, have been organized.

South American Salvationists are rejoicing over a record Self-Denial achievement, upon which they and Colonel Palmer, the Acting Territorial Leader, are to be congratu-

Two organs and a piano have been esented by Army friends for use the William Booth Memorial Buildings which were opened a few weeks ago at Nottingliam (Eng.).

In order to attend the Norwegian Congress gatherings in Christiania, a woman Officer from a country Corps travelled sixty miles so on the carrier of a bicycle

General Order

Harvest Festival Effort 1915

The Annual Harvest Festival are fixed for Sept. 11-14. inclusive, After August 21, no demonstration of a financial character (except on behalf of the Harvest Festival Fund) must take place in any Corps until the Effort is closed, without rmission. Officers of all ranks are responsible for seeing that this Order is

WM. I RICHARDS,

WAR CRY

Printed for The Salvation Army in Canada, New Soundland, Bermuda, and Alaska, by The Salvation Army Printing House, 16 Albert St., Toronto.

LIFE-SAVING SCOUTS

The photographs on our front page and elsewhere in this issue, are good evidence that the Life-Saving Scout Movement is taking on well in Canada. At the Clarkson's Rally, 165 lads were inspected by the Chief Secretary, who commented very faorably on their appearance and discipline. We learn from the Territorial Organizer that there are now 32 Troops of Scouts, with a membership of 430, and more joining every week. There can be no doubt that this movement is just the thing for the younger generation-both boys and girls-for Troops of Girl Guides are about to be formed also. An Editor of a Western paper, the "Estevan Progress," made some comments in his columns one day about the need of a Scout organiza. tion in the town, as so much good material was going to waste. The boys of the town, apparently, expended their energies in sham battles with each other. A few weeks later he wrote: "Even while I was yet speaking, it appears that a grovement was on foot to create such an organization in Estevan. .The Salyation Army has taken the matter up, and an introductory parade will be held at the barracks on Friday evening, and any boy between the ages of eleven and eighteen years is eligible to join. This is an excellent movement and should attract a large number of boys from all parts of the town. Their yearning for something of a military nature will be satisfied, though the work of The Sulvation Army is such that the impulse to bloody war is kept down, and their forces are exerted in the ihterests of peace." The value of the Scout movement right there, It organizes the boys and teaches them something useful, instead of letting them waste their time in mere play. Physical drill, first aid, and many other prac-tical things, will make the boy man-ly, soft-reliant and useful, and will interest him just as much as mere loose, undisciplined play.

LATEST.

St. John's, Nfld., Aug. 11.—Glori-ous finish up of Councils. Total, seekers. — Brigadier

WESTERN COMMISSIONER

HAS A GOOD DAY IN THE WHEAT CITY PROMINENT CITIZENS EULOGIZE ARMY 22 PERSONS SEEK SALVATION

OMMISSIONER and Mrs. OMMISSIONER and Mrs.
Sowton spent last Sunday at Manitoba's second city—Brandon, familiarly known as the Wheat City. Adjutant Weir had his arrangements well in hand and on several occasions during the day expressed, on behalf of the Corps, their great de-light at having their new Terri-

The Commissioner and his party, which also included Staff-Captains Tudge and Peacock, arrived a little after 10 on Saturday night, in the ever, did not prevent the Brandon-ites from showing their delight at the coming of the visitors.

Brandon's splendid Band, with a great crowd of Soldiers and friends. were at the denot and eccorted the visiting party to the Citadel, the behind a beautiful span of horses, kindly furnished by Alderman Trotter.

Sunday broke beautiful and clear and we had a grand day. Many were fearful that the heat would make the execute email but even in this respect there was not much room to complain. The Bandsmen and Solcomplain. The Bandsmen and Sol-diers worked hard all day, turning out in good numbers for the Open-airs and Indoor services; in fact, they impressed the Commissioner very favorably indeed.

The Holiness Meeting was a time of much blessing, and at the close five precious souls were seeking power and blessing. Staff-Captain Tudge read the Scriptures, while Mrs. Sowton and the Commissioner also talked to us from their hearts. The Commissioner's solo, "One With My Lord," helped considerably with the meeting.

Public Welcome Meeting.

Sunday afternoon was given over so a public welcome. Among the speakers to represent the city fin receiving Commissioner and Mrs. Sowton were Alderman Trotter, who acted as chairman; Alderman Bullock and Alberman Patmore. Ex-Mayor Clement also spoke. The chairman, Alderman Beecham

Trotter, is a citizen of over thirtythree years' standing in Brandon, Mr. Trotter is chairman of the Police. Lieense and Relief Committee, portant committees, and he is also prominent member of the Ein a prominent member of the First Methodist Church. He told of the sacrifices made by The Army Offi-cers who had come to the city twenty-five years ago. They had no building in which to hold their sersome building in the heart of hold their services, and had often knelt in the snow when the thermometer registered forty below. Now they had a handsome building in the heart of

The sample of people before you The sample of people octore you to-day cannot be surpassed in any country, and go where you will you cannot find hardsomer women or prettier bables. From here there have been 1.600 men enlist for ac-have been 1,600 men enlist for aetive service and when they are tested in the trenches they will be found like our women and our wheat-number one hard."

Mr. Trotter quoted statistics to show the work of The Army, and remarked that as a member of the show the work of The Army, and remarked that as a member of the Redie Committee he had always found that The Salvation Army had been ready to do all they could to heln people who were down and out. The Commissioner and Mrs. Sowton each gave an interesting and helpful address, making a very fa-vorable impression on all present. Commissioner Sowton said that he had seen the work of The Army heing carried on successfully in Norway, Denmark, Sweden, Ice-land, United States, and India, and now he had been sent to Canada and had come with his whole heart to do his part here. "We have received a welcome that for heartiness could not be surpassed, and our problem now is to find a way to re-pay our friends for their kindness and we have come here to do all that we can for the alleviation of sorrow and suffering."

Alderman Bullock said that those who did not travel had no idea of the work done by The Army, esneeially among people not reached by any of the c hurches, and for actual work The Army came first. In many any of the contrenes, and for actual work The Army came first. In many cities the Relief Department worked in conjunction with the Salvation Army to great advantage. Alderman Patmore remarked that there never had been a time when there was greater opportunity for the work The Salvation Army was doing than the present. The great war was causing a change over the country and greater interest was being taken in all religious affairs. Ex. Mayor Clement, who was the last speaker, Said that he had attended the first meeting held in the city of Brandou, and many Army Officers had been his necessarily in present. Officers had been his personal friends, and he could heartily endorse the work they were doing. He moved a hearty vote of thanks to Alderman Trotter for his services as chairman

Chairman,
Sunday night was a grand finish to a grand day. The Commissioner and Mrs. Sowton were in splendid trim, although the day was a heavy one. The heat was very trying, but the great crowd which filled the hall gave splendid attention. At the close of a well-fought-out prayer meeting, we registered over thirteen souls kneeling at the Merey Seat. This, together with four Juniors who came out in the Commissioner's meeting with the Young People meeting with the Young People, brought the total up to twenty-two for the Sunday. Brandon did well and was greatly pleased over the visit of their new Commissioner.

Visit to Sewell Camp.

On the Saturday, on the way to Brandon, the Commissioner and Mrs Sowton, accompanied by Staff-Captain Peacock, visited Sewell Capitain Peacock, visited sewen Camp, They were met by Capitain Marsland, the resident Salvation Army Chaplain, and after being treated to light refreshments at the Y.M.C.A. tent, were shown over the camp. Major Ross, D.A.A.G., O.M. G. and Mrs. Ross, entertained the Commissioner and his Staff to tea at the Headquarters' Staff Tent.

at the Headquarters' Shaff Tent. The Major was very cordial and stated he had a great admiration for The Salvation 'Army. It rained very heavily during the evening, which made it somewhat unpleasant, and prevented the trowd from capping. The Commissioner, however, went on, with the meeting with the itew who were present. At the close one brother came forward the close one brother came forward for Salvation, and another dear Comrade reconscerated his life for service. God bless the dear fellows service. God bless the dear fellows at Sewell. They need your prayers and sympathy. Commissioner and Mrs. Sowton were greatly interested in the camp.

Observations BY NECHO.

Ah, there is Brigade Adphis wife taking their and alone, but he is bright and and as rubermed face a ser to be on the increase.

[Owing to a mistage, to go and the part did not reach us in the included in last week's note.

included in last weeks meet-5-45 a.m., Montreal Depot gadler Rawling, Staf Captain rows and Captain Dray meet party. The Brigadier, with rows and Capa Sin Gaptar rows and south and what the gadier would, have likely to be sound out, was where he was appointed next, and his declar cound out, was where he was suppointed next, and his declar cound out, was where he was suppointed next, and his declar cound out, was when the suppose of the country of th .

I fearm by the conversation of Bit godier Addy and Major Bar the the Commissioner was very mode at home at Dr. Gillis hospitale in sidence. The Dector was ill was a sidence. The Dector was ill was commissioner at Article at the Article and the Standard and Standard

The Mayor of Glace By the ideal chairman. He took to an little time and what he did say to the point and very beautifulty en

The expressions heard by Ne here and there amongst the professions that the day was unique and

PERSONALIA TERRITORIAL

CANADA EAST The Chief Secretary and Min Gaskin will visit Windsor, Onl., for the week-end. Sept. 4-5. Colonel Jacobs was at Guelon les week-end, and conducted methag at the Corps and at the Ontario Re-formatory. Two souls sought S-vation at the night meeting in the Citadel

Colonel Hammond arrived in To ronto from the West on Monday, Aug. 9. He will shortly start for tour of Newfoundland.

tour of Newfoundard.
Lieut. Colonel Taylor will official at the wedding of Capt. Resi Spooner and Capt. Margaret Wight at Yorkville on Sept. 1. Staff Captain Bloss, we are to hear, is showing a slight improvement in health.

Adjutant Bessie Green, of the Adjutant Besse Green, or and John Division, has been sense ill, but is now on the road to receive. Mrs. Ensign Janes, of Aira der Bay, Nfld., is under the dotte care, and Licut, Regina Janes, Harbor Grace, has had to under Harbor Grace, has not to an operation.

Adjutant and Mrs. Suchand of Grand Bank, Nad, welcomed shipping to their home on July lions to Ensign and Mrs. Galway are being to the St. John Division, Division Winnie Jones is suffering wanne jones is suffering seathitis, and is at pres-in Toronto. Pray for Comrades.

Beston has been appointed and at New Waterford, the istact of children for the the Camp at Clarkson's are to for on Tuesday, Aug. 17th, bonded needy children bave a two weeks' holiday at the this year.

CANADA WEST

CANADA WEST

and Mrs. Green bave find through Winnipeg oo jest, where they are takevecks' furlough prior to up appointment again.

mately, the Brigadier is very just we request the prayers the Cry readers that he may and the resident that he may seed restored to health and the seed of the restored to health and are seed of the restored to health and a reside wind-up, and go to their positions, vancouver, B.C., at heide Divisional Commanding the the work on the Pacific has the work on the Pacific has a seed of the restored to the ile assistance of Staff-Captair ma me assistance of Staff-Captain facilitized Captain Cox, until the and of the new Divisional Commay use new Divisional Com-metr. This also applies to the only formed Division, Saskatche-

Enign Bryenton has been das Financial Collector for sind as Financial Collector for such generally representing our such work in that Province, Capin, Kellehar has been ap-med to similar position for studynan, and takes up her attentivith in this newly formed

Adjutant Cummins writes very dily of his work in Edmonton. prior and police work, and resection with which the Adju-nity special police work, and resection with which the Adju-nity spin splendid service.

The Cry readers will be interested loying that among the Candi-loying that among this ses-me the sons of Brigadier and Mckan and Adjutant and Moritt. Both these young three done splendid service as litted we are looking forward an and we are looking forward the bings from the children of the bings parents.

ii: Ieritorial Sceretary, accounted by Engine Pugmire, has a very profitable visit to curran for the week-end. The stranged to Winnipeg, while imperial Sceretary went on the bings of t and his wife are strugging sense the flag, although both miortunately, at the present with much under the weather. Lawson, of Kamloops,

Lawson, of Kamloops, as to undergo an operation, cub of not a very serious national been rather unpleasant. Information to hand was harfier that the Captain was Joliffe represented The standard presided for hydronidate and presided over by the standard for the standard

COMMISSIONER RICHARDS

HAS A SPLENDID START TO HIS NEWFOUNDLAND CAMPAIGN-HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR PRESIDES AT PUBLIC WELCOME GATHERING AND WARMLY EULOGIZES ARMY'S WORK FORTY-TWO SEEKERS

T. JOHN'S, NFLD., Aug. 9.— The welcome accorded Com-missioner Richards was unpremissioner Richards was unpre-cedented in the history of The Salvation Army in Newfound-land. The enthusiasm with which land. The enthusiasm with which he was received by the St. John's public surpassed all re-cords and nothing could exceed the whole-heartedness with which the whole-heartedness with which the Officers and Locals received their new Leader.

From the public standpoint the

From the public standpoint the event of the campaign was Smiday afternoon, in the Casino Theatre. His Excellency, Sir Walter Edward Davidson, K.C.M.G. presided, and was ably supported by a large number of St. John's etilzens. His Excellency, in introducing the Commissioner, spoke in a very friendly manner, expressing his gratitude of the world was by Th. Arms and manner, expressing his gratitude of the work done by The Army, and enlogizing the grand and good work of its founder, the late General Wm. Booth, in giving to the world a new lesson on the brotherhood of man

The Commissioner followed, and his address was a masterpiece, Not for one moment did the interest of that vast audience flag. The Com-missioner, with his witty and striking incidents, carried their attention to the finish.

On Sunday evening fully 1,400 people gathered to hear him. Never people gathered to hear him. Never was there a larger crowd packed in-to the building. His address was powerful, and much good will be the ontcome. The visible results were yery satisfactory indeed, Offiwere very satisfactory indeed. Offi-eers' Councils are now in progress, and all say they are the best yet. Brigadier Adby is rendering valuable assistance. Forty-two seekers up to date. —Brig. Morchen.

IN CAPE BRETON

Three Corps Visited - Thirty-five Seekers at Glace Bay.

of the Cape Breton Corps prior to his sailing for Newfoundland, is now a matter of history, and a very pleasing kind of history at that. The pleasing sinu or instory at that, the places visited were Glace Bay, North Sydney and Sydney Mines,

Glace Bay came first on the list. Glace Bay came first on the list, the eanipaign opening with a red-hoi Soldiers' meeting on the night of Saturday, July 31 A splendid crowd warmly welcomed the Commissioner and party, the warmth of the welcome making Major Barr's the welcome making Major Barr's task a very pleasant and agreeable one. The Comrades of Glace Bay and New Aberdeen (for the Corps united for the week-end) were full of expectancy, and they certainly were not disappointed. Before the Commissioner addressed the meetcommissioner addressed the meet-ing. Brigadier Adby, who accom-panied him, sang one of his sweet songs, and by his singing captured ali hearts

The Commission of a 44 and most carerly listened to and not a word was allowed to slip. Needless to say, it was full of point and bite and it was soon evident that God was at work, and, while at this meeting only two seekers came to the iront, these two who sought to bring about a reconciliation between themselves, were the first fruits of the splendid break that was to come at the next meeting

The Sunday morning Holiness meeting will long be remembered by those who were privileged to be present. The Commissioner had present. The Commissioner had great liberty and his message was a most telling one. Rarely has the writer of these notes realized more of the presence and power of God in a Holiness Meeting. Almost the en-tire congregation was bathed in tears, and thirty-three Comrades and backsliders came to the Cross. It certainty was a Heaven-on-earth experience, and Comrades wept and Seekers at Glace Bay.

The Commissioner's visit to a few by the Spirit of God.

The afternoon meeting was beld in St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, and took the form of a welcome meeting. Mayor Cameron presided, a number of prominent citizens supa number of prominent citizens sup-porting him. In a few well-chosen words, his Worship introduced the Commissioner, who, in his own mi-mitable way, immediately gripped the minds and attention of his huge the minds and attention of his hage audience of nearly a thousand peo-ple. One eannot describe Commis-sioner Richards style-one must hear him, and only those who have heard his address on occasions of this kind can realize how thoroughly, every sentence is listened to and onioved

At night, the church, which was kindly placed at our disposal by the Board, was again packed to the doors, extra seats having to be brought in to accommodate the congregation.

The address by the Commissioner, was a powerful one, clear and con-vincing, and made a fitting finish to a series of splendid appeals to the hearts of the Glace Bay Comrades and friends. Brigadier Adby's sweet singing was of course a feature in each meeting and was greatly en-joyed by alt. The Glace Bay Band and Songsters also rendered good and Songsters also rendered good service.

On Monday, our good Iriend, Mr. McDonald, put his automobile at our disposal and the trip to Sydney, (where Mrs. Galway kindly provided lunch) was a most enjoyable one. The Commissioner paid a flying visit of inspection to Whitney Pier, and considerably surprised Captain and Mrs. Gillingham by promoting them to the rank of Ensign. They, were worthy of it, and no doubt by, this time they have recovered from the shock.

Arriving at North Sydney about 4.30, the Commissioner and party, went direct to the Citadel, at which the Cape Breton Officers had gathered to take ten with the Commisered to take tea win the commus-sioner. This was a pleasant event, which was thoroughly enjoyed. Ad-jutant Cavender and Mrs. Ensign Spronle made welcome speeches on hehalf of the male and female Officers respectively, and Ensign Gal-way said a few farewell words, he being transferred to the St. John Division after eleven years' service

(Concluded on Page 12.)

The Harvest Festival, 1915

THE CHIEF SECRETARY DISCOURSETH TO AN INTERVIEWER ON THE ABOVE IMPORTANT TOPIC

ROM all accounts Canada is to have a bumper harvest. This is a cause for great gratitude to God, the Giver of All Good Things, and we should practically demon strate our thanksgiving by offering

The speaker was the Chief Score-try. He leaned back in his chair, tary. He leaned back in his chair, placed his hand to his forehead and half closed his eyes, as is his habit when deep in thought. Then he continued:

"Bring ye all the titles into the "Bring ye all the titles into the storehouse." Such was God's command to His ancient people, and though the times have changed and the manner of our giving also, yet I find no reason for believing that the principle of giving part of our substance for God's service has in anywise altered. Great principles are everlastingly the same, and in anywise altered. Great principles are everlastingly the same, and in the matter of Giving to God I could wish that all people regarded it as a matter of principle. It is plain from the Bible story of 'The Wi-dow's Mite' that this poor woman considered it a sacred duty to give to God, and though it cost her all that she had she performed that duty conscientionsly. She gave her last cent, as we would say, for the sake of adhering to a principle which had doubtless been instilled into her heart and mind since childhood.

"I am constantly coming across touching incidents of a like charac-ter in the literature of the Salvation Army, showing that our people are intbued with the same spirit of deintbued with the same spirit of de-votion to a principle as old as the world itself. Only recently I came across this charming little incident, and it is all the more remarkable because it concerns a little cirl resbecause it concerns a little girl res-ened from heathendom. This is it: Etlen was an inmate of one of our Industrial Schools in India—a little orphan girl. Just before the last Self Denial effort she had one pice (a cent) given to her. Most of the children spend the rare pice they re-ceive in jalabies (candies), but when the Adjutant in charge of the Home asked the girls who amongst them had an offering to give towards the Fund, little Ellen's hand went up. "'Why, Ellen, said the Adjutant

"You have no money to give, have you?"

"Yes, mamma, replied Ellen, 'I have one pice that was given me. I have saved it, and would like to give it for Self Denial.'

"It struck me when I read it that that is a splendid example of how The Army spirit is recognized and embraced by even the youngest amonest us

"Now, the point I want to emphafort in Canada in the year 1915 should be taken up by all Salva-tionists in this spirit, as a matter of principle, as a matter of a duty to God and The Army.

"We are aiming at raising $25,000 by this effort—for the Canada East Territory alone, mind you. That will mean a great deal of personal giving, of collecting and devoted toll on the part of our Officers and Sol-diers, but if they bear in mind that it is for the extension of God's Kingdom and that He whom they, serve, for wise purposes of His own, has chosen to extend that Kingdom hy means of the efforts of His Soldiers, then they will put forth every effort to smash the target with enthusiasm and pleasure.

"What was in your mind, Colonel, when you said that the times (Concluded on Page

HARD WORKERS

TWO VISITORS.

The much-looked-for visit of Brigadier Camerou and Ensign Easteome and gone, but the influence of their visit lives on. A goodly num-ber sought the blessing of a clean heart and others the blessing of Sal-Good grounds attended the vation. Good crowds attended the Onen-Air Services, and also inside, and much orodit is due to the drai Comrades, who in spite of the fact that they labor hard all day, yet that they labor hard all day, yet were seldom away from a meeting either inside or open-air. Special mention must be made of Captains Hill and Barton, of Halifax and St. John, who sought to bring some blessing and inspiration to the hearts of others with their solos in the open air and their prayer and testimony in the Hall. Mention must be made of the kindness of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon lisher, who so kindly administered to the temporal needs of

ON AN ISLAND.

The Juniors Had a Glorious Day.

The annual Picule of the Gananomic luniors was held on July -anoque jumors was held on July -ayrd at one of the beautiful Thous--and Islands of the St. Lawrence. The day was all that could be desired and the young people met at wharf at 9.30 a.m., and were taken by the boats down the beautiful by the boats down the heantiful river to one of the Islands, where we spent a most happy day. Cap-tain Walters and Lieut, dittings, with smiling faces, seconed to be boys once again, and when the time arrived everyone was delighted with the lovely spread pre-The whole rompany returned at seven in the evening, and many of the children, yes, and grown-ups, were heard to remark that it had been the best picule of years and that they wished such a one took place every day.-A. Weir.

DOWN THE STREAM.

The Comrades Enjoyed the Moon-light Trip.

Brigadier Cameron and Ensign Brigadier Cameron and Emsign Eastwell pail a visit to Fredericton on July 23rd, and whilst here the Ensign received her promotion to Dier present rank. During their stay we were much blessed and helped by the addresses of the Brigadier and the practical testimony of the Ensign, coupled with her singing. One sinner sought pardon, two backsliders returned and three souls sought sanetification.

sought sanctineation.

On Tuesday, July 27th, we held our annual Pionie to Taylortown, fifteen miles down the St. John River. The weather was lovely and we returned to frederiction at tong p.m., after a happy day by the riverside. One of the most delightful events of the day, however, was the return to it by events of the day, however, was the return trip by monalight up the or. Captain and Mrs. Condie are captain a will to make the T. S. G.

Soldiers Attend Every Open-Air and Colonels Bates and Hammond Give The Prisoners Liked the New Officers Receive Farence Order

Colonel Hammond, of Interna-Colonel Hantmond, of Interna-tional Headquarters, recently paid an Official visit to the West and ealled in at Vanconver I, Corps. Although not yet in what might be called robust health, the Colonel was able to lead the night meeting on able to lead the might meeting on July 11th, and for this there was a good attendance. Before leaving the rity the Colonel had a good look around and was greatly impressed by its cuvirons and natural advanttages, Colouel Bates, another International visitor who is enroute Japan, also spent a night at Van-rouver 1. On Monday evening, July 19th, the Colonel lectured on "The World-Wide Salvation Army." interesting and enthralling subject as usual drew a large audi ence, and the meeting seemed all too short. Brigadier Green presided.

On Thursday, July 22nd, at this Corps, under the auspices of the League of Mercy, an interesting meeting was held. This was the last public meeting in this Division. under the presidency of Mrs, Bri-gadier Green. A good programme of songs, recitations, music, etc., was given. Sergeant-Major Mrs. Coffin read the Scriptures and gave a short address. Altogether a very nleasaut evening was spent -G. A.

TEMPEDANCE MESTINGS

Lecture on Women's Social Work.

Good meetings were held at Red Deer for the week-end of July 18th, and Envoy Christopher, of Edmon-ton I. Corps was with us, bringing his concertina and auto-harp him. His music and singing were much enjoyed, and although we did much enjoyed, and although we did not have any visible results we be-lieve much good was accomplished. Ensign Bryenton, from Calgary, was with us for July 22nd and gave us a good address on the Women's Social Work in that eity. Our Offi-cers recently visited Clive, a little town near here, and gave Temper-ance Addresses. There were good attendances for these meetings, and much interest was shown in our

A PLEASANT VISIT.

Brigadier Morehen Conducts Dedi-cation Service.

Brigadier and Mrs. Morehen were Brigadier and Mrs. Morehen were at Dililo a short time ago, and the Brigadier gave the second part of his lecture on his life story. On the following Sunday morning at the Hollmess Meeting like Brigadier con-ducted the dedication of the baby daughter of Adjutant and Mrs. Ebsary. This Sunday was the farewell of the Adjutant and his wife, after stay of two years, and the Comrades here are indeed sorry to lose them. Captain and Mrs. Hillier, also old friends, have been visiting here, and until the arrival of our new Officers, Envoy Hillier is lead-ing us on.—E. P. A FULL WEEK-END

Two Open-airs were held by the Fort William Comrades on Saturday evening, July 31st, Land these were well attended and were listened to very attentively by the people round about. On Sunday morning Ensign Bourne, with Bandmaster Talbot, visited the Prison Farm, they conducted a meeting with the inmates who were very on with the inmates, who were very en-thusiastic in picking up the new choruses, "Keep Sweet" and "There's a Hand Held Out to You," The Holiness Meeting at the Cita-del was a time when God came and blessed our souls, and this meeting blessed our souls, and his meeting was led by the Sergeant-Major, who spoke with power. In the afternoon the Ensign paid his first visit to the Young People, and gave a short address. This part of our work is flourishing and we are in for vic-tory, Mrs. Ensign Bourne soloed at the evening meeting, at which the Ensign gave a heart-searching ad-dress, and a young woman for whom we have been praying surrendered.

A young man also was deeply con-vieted, but did not surrender. Pray for him. K. F. Cand. VISITED A PRISON

Good Attendance for Farewell Meeting.

Captain W. Lewis, with Brother T. Jones, visited the St. John Jail on July 25th and conducted the usual Sunday afternoon services there, on hehalf of the prisoners. They received the visitors gladly and joined heartily in the singing and stevotional exercises. The "War revotional exercises. The "War Cry" is a great favorite amongst the men and is read eagerly. At night lie Conrades of St. John I. mus-tered in strength for the farewell meeting of Captain and Mrs. Ham. Recent converts were to the front and each one testified to the great change which had come into their lives. The Captain in his last ad-dress exhorted all to stand firm, and pleaded with the sinners to their all to God, and serve Him.—

NEW OFFICERS.

Adjutant and Mrs. Johnstone Take New Appointment.

Since last report a change of Offi-cers has taken place at Saskatoon. Adjutant Andrews has gone on fur-lough and Adjutant and Mrs. John-stone are now in charge. Already things are looking up and meetings are better attended, the singing of Mrs. Adjutant Johnstone being a arrs. Adjutant Johnstone being a great attraction. Brigadier McLean recently paid us his farewell visit. Adjutant Andrews, Captain Delamont and Engage. TWO DEDICATIONS

We are pleased to report that the Vancouver 11. Corps is in good essistion. A beautiful spirit of one of the vancouver 11. Corps is in good essistion. A beautiful spirit of one of the vancouver in the spirit of the property of the variety of the variety of the vancouver in the master of the Band being much provided Recently Mrs. Broader Green Care the Tife's Story of the variety successful command of eighten months, our Officers, Adjutant M. Meikle and Lieutenant Brownbare received farewell orders, which fact much regretted by the comme and friends

SAD AT PARTING.

Brigadier MeLean Pays Farench

Brigadier McLean and Captala Cox were at Swift Current on Thursday, July 20th, and everyone enjoyed their meeting. However, there was a general feeling of regret there was a general technic of regre-at the Brigadier's having to sp farewell, but each and every Con-rade pray that God may abundant bless him and over his work in the new command. There was applied large attendance to hear Cantin Jones, on Thursday, July 22nd 02 Jones, on Thursday, July 22nd, 02 a recent Saturday night a man got well saved, and Stunday's mering were rewarded by the surrender of a "man in khaki."

DEVIL ROUTED.

Many Prisoners Taken in Frontal Attack

God has been wonderfully blessing the efforts of the Officers and Soldiers at Coleman lately, and within twenty-five surrenders, twenty-tw being young people and three being adults. This is indeed to both Offcers and Soldiers an inspiring vic-tory, making us more determined the battle than ever to go on with the

RIVE SOULS Adjutant and Mrs. Bristow were Vancouver III. on July 18th. In Sweet, Army friends, and Mrs.

Bristow gave a powerful address & night we had a real hot Salvalist meeting, in which five siners kelt at the Mercy Seat. Praise Gol for victory. We are having good reviral meetings.

VISITORS HELPED.

the afternoon the Adjutant dedicate

Adjutant Andrews, Captain Delamont and Envoy Peacock each hot a few words of regret 11 parting speaking of the grand work done for God during the Brigadier's term of Office in this Division. Saurday night's meeting was followed by a rousing open-air, and two soils came to the penitent form.—Ca.C.

LOOK OUT FOR HIM

FOUSING SEND-OFF WINNIPEG SALVATIONISTS.

Esty one hundred and fifty Sal-blook part in the great which preceded the final fare of Winnipeg, of Brigadier and Letan, the Divisional Com-ment and all the way along the make and all the way along the wish which took part. The Cladel was well filled for

To Gladel was well hilled for saids meeting.
Sol Capiain Peacock, in his income that and interesting referbile associations with the He said that years ago D. C. are him his first comissed. Local Officer over 200 for the Staff-Capian). as a Local Officer over 20 go; he (the Staff-Captain) the blessing of a clean heart of the Brigadier's meetings. g up to present day memories gup to present day mean-reaf-Captain said he was im-by the way the departing and Commander always more during his work in the to stop and help and pray with demkard that came in; time during his work in the bestop and help and pray with poor drunkard that came in; to could never be forgotten the he Brigadier had scoured the en country, ercating smiles he went.

Heisres of farewell were then from Adjulant Jaynes, of ReEasign Bourne, of Fort Wilcast Commissioner Sowton.
The Citadel Songsters then sang mel Jordan, Roll." and the Band deron, which followed, contained re Yindan, Roll," and the Band and which followed, contained the min of "Should Auld Acquainman of "Should Auld Acquainman of The Should Auld Acquainman of The Should Auld Acquainman of The Should and the Should Auld The Should The Sho ter to express all that was felt depreciation of the Brigauer and in McLeao, as, seeing he had to that in Swedish and talk in Engion of the Brigadier and lik in Swedish and talk in Eng-miles and to do justice to the Miles and to do justice to the Sin Capian Tudge represented insignariers Staff, and seeing was in years gone by one of the taller Cadels, he was able to be to g worth of Brigadier and Mrs.

mast Allen spoke for all the as first Allen spoke for all the second Mrs. McLean, whose heart is fell, read the 64th Psalm, and the firend, and the friend, ared up to represent The Army do in the city and to wish our lains God speed.

MANY VISITORS

in an pleased to report good stars at Truto, N.S. On Week at Young, July 21st, we had an Adjutant Wiseman. The stationed here some the stationed here some the stationed here is a stationed here to his depair. Hardy, of West and Hardy, of West and Hardy, of West and Hardy, of West and Hardy Hardy and consistent and Mrs. White, of 18th, were with us, and consistent with the station meeting. avery Suivation Incestings the tad meetings were contied by Ensign and Mrs. Raymer, the soul sought Salvation.

> with and Mrs. Rogers led the and Mrs. Rogers led the set at Toronto f. on Sunday, and the cornet playing casin Rogers was a great the Cornet Section of the

HE WANTS TO SELL YOU SOMETHING - AN INTERVIEW WITH THE TRAVELLING TRADE REPRESENTATIVE BEFORE HE SET OUT ON HIS FIRST TRIP.

have an extra supply of goods with me to meet the needs of those in attendance. I might say that the Officers at all these Corps have been requested to arrange special meet-ings on the day I visit them, and I enticipate meeting large numbers of anticipate meeting large numbers of Soldiers and friends who will appre-ciate the many splendid articles. I have for their inspection. I want to have for their inspection. I want to assure the Officers that I will heart-ily eo-operate with them to make the meetings a success. The East is an old battleground for me, and I and Mrs. McGillivray spent some very happy years there as District Offiare to a renewal of old aequaint-ances and the making of new ones."

On the floor we noticed a large black telescope grip, almost as big as the Major himself. That is his field gun, the 75 mm, with which he first opens ure. Wan till you see him coming with n. But that is not all his armament. A tremendous hind-his hig 42-centimetre gun for than Army hats, bonnets and dress good: however.

We had a look into that grip while the Major discoursed on the merits

"There are some fine hooks for you," he said. "When the Holy Ghost Is Come," by Colonel Brengle,

Ah all Officers and Soldiers ought to have that in their libraries. Then

That new Soldiers' Song Book is a dandy. Note the large print, fine rice paper, leather binding and convenient size. It sells for a dollar-

That big book you've just picked up is a mine of wealth for Officers. It is entitled, "Outlines for Ad-dresses." Six hundred pages packed with good material for all occasions and all for the sum of one dollar. What's in the little box? Oh, what's in the latter box! One fountain pen—a British-made article. It sells for $1.25 and is very ticle. It sells for $1.25 and is very satisfactory. In the little red boxes are another brand of fountain pen— the Reliance Safety Filler. They are What's in the little box?

one for a lour-year-old girl:

"Dear little four-year-old to-day, Your babyhood has passed away. Have you begun to love the Lord, And listen to His Holy Word?

sirthday gift or for personal use.

there is "Flaff Hours With I Guide," by the late Mrs. Breugle.

the reduction of forticeses.

of the things we discovered.

So I look forward with pleas-

ALORE HE SET OUT ON HIS FIRST TRIP.

A/OR McGILIVRAY, the newly appointed Trato, Parrisboro; Sept. 11-12, New verding Trade Representative, William Trade Representative, William Trade Representative of the great Fall drive dear Cry representative and the great Fall drive dear the great Fa telling Trade Representa-tive, was busily preparing for his great Fall drive when a War Cry representative swooped down upon him to deliver an ultimatum. "Explain why you an ultimatum, "Explain why you are mobilizing," was the demand made upon him, and an answer was required in 24 seconds. Seeing that enemy was well prepared (with notebook and pencil) to jot down all that he said, to be used as luture evidence against him, the Major in-timated his willingness to arbitrate the question, and a treaty that was mutually advantageous to either side was concluded. Allies now, we

On the Warpath,

proceeded to discuss the proposed lan of campaign,
"This is a novel thing for Canada.

is it not?" we asked, "the sending of an Officer about the country to sell our Trade goods?"

"Well, yes and no," was the eanhas been sent occasionally on a short tour for a like purpose, but this is the first time anyone has been permanently appointed to such a task. The Commissioner is of the opinion that a greater volume of trade could be done if our people could have samples of the goods we earry taken right to their very door. To do this a man must be ou the job all the time.

double the price, and of course much superior. If anyone wants an extra "Where do you propose to make your happy hunting grounds for the next month or so?" swell pen we have a gold-handed one for three dollars. one for three dollars.

Those Cradle Roll hirthday eards for children are fine. Beautifully coloured as you will observe, with The Army Flag prominent, and pretty little baby photographs, The verses, too, are grand; listen to this

"I'm going east in a day or so, and 'I'm going east in a day of so, and in the earlier parts of August will visit the Corps in the East Onlario and Quebee Division. Then I comand Quebee Division. Then I com-mence in the Maritime Provinces, starting at Woodstock, N.B., on August 24th. My tour from that on includes the following places: Augmetudes the following places: Angust 26, St. Stephen: August 26, St. John I.; August 27, St. John II.; August 29, St. John II.; August 29, Fredericton; August 39, St. John II. or IV; August 31, Yarmouth; Sept. 1, Monteon; Sept. 2, Amherst; Sept. 3, Summerside; Sept. 4 and 3, Charlottelown; Sept. 6, Pictou; Sept. 7, Westville; Sept.

Territorial Secretary

CONDUCTS SUNDAY MEET-INGS IN SASKATOON—MR. McCRANEY, M.P., RECALLS INTERESTING FACT— TEN SOULS.

To the stranger the first view of Saskatoon is little short of amazing, hut pleasureable, surprise. He na-turally has in mind a "Boom City." turally has in mind a "Boom City," of mushroom growth, with rapidly laid-out streets and temporarily erected banks, stores and public buildings. What is his delight, therefore, when he beholds a thoroughly modern, up-to-date city in every respect — wide, splendidly paved streets, tall, substantial-looking buildings, electric street railway system, etc., etc. Is it any wonder that, driving along in Mr. Tuffling's heautilul "McLaughlin" on the heights to the south of the broad, rolling Saskatehawan we simply rave ourselves over to exchanations expressions of wonder and de and e light.

But quite in keeping with the solidity and "up-to-dateness" of the city is the splendid Salvation Army work that is being earried on under the leadership of Adjutant and Mrs. Johnstone — a fine, well-equipped Band, eapable Locals, smartly uni-formed Soldiers, and, amongst them, a most encouraging proportion of young people,

This being the Territorial Scere-tary's first visit to Soskatoon in his new capacity, all were looking forward to a special time of interest

The Saturilay night Open-air and Inside Meetings were led by Ensign Pugnite, the Colonel being unable reach Saskatoon until Sunday

The Holiness Meeting on Sunday morning was a time of inspiration and spiritual help, the Colonel arging all present to more patiently and raistently run the great race that was set before them

In the afternoon a good audience listened to the Colonel's address on "Nation Building," in which he showed that true national greatness depended upon fidelity and loyalty, to certain fixed human and Christian principles. The Colonel traced War through from its beginning, drawing lessons therefrom, and gradrawing tessons therefron, and graphically describing the part played in the war by The Salvation Army. The chair was ably filled by Mr. George E. McCrancy, M.P., who, in bis opening remarks, said, "No mat-ter what our polities or faith, we must all bear witness to the wonderful work of The Salvation Army." Mr. McCrancy, in course of conversation later, mentioned the interesting fact that the present site of the Temple on the corner of James and Albert Streets, in Toronto, was solu to The Salvation Army by his grandlather, who, for some years previously, had lived in a cottage on the same spot,

At night two Open-air Meetings were held, the Band, with the Terri-torial Secretary in command, and the Soldiers, under the leadership of the Soldiers, under the leadersing of Adjutant and Mrs. Johnstone and Eusign Pugmire. The march to the Hall was an inspiring sight. The meeting Inside, led by the Colonel, resolved itself into a typical old-time Battle for Souls—the Band, Locals and Soldiers assisting nobly. Locals and Soldiers assisting nonly. The efforts of the week-end were crowned with success, when ten souls, adults and Juniors, knelt at the Merey Seat.

Adjutant and Mrs. Johnstoworked like trojans to week-end a success.

Your dearest friend let Jesus be, And walk with Him obediently." (Concluded on Page 15.)

RUSSIA AND THE RUSSIANS

THE CALL OF ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTY FOUR MILLION

ANY years ago," said the late Mr. Stead, the late Mr. Stead, when the famous Russian, painter, Vereschagin was exhibiting his properties in London, he paid a visit to
The Salvation Army Hall in Oxfor
Gertus, London. Verestschagin was refreethinker in religion, but he was a man who was Russian to his fingertips and keenly sympathetic with id common people. After his visit. Latound him in a state of great en-thisiasm about The Salvation Army, The said: I have been at the Hall, file I have seen the kind of religious and I have seen the kind of rengions of rengions of the first state of the first sample, homely, friendly, sociable, plenty of music, no formality, everyone on equality, th one free to sing and pray as he chooses, and the whole company desiring in a traktir. I have never

5 of the Czar's domains is 144,178 square miles, its population being 3,140,100. A gratifying work of a deeply spiritual character has made a mark for righteousness in "Dear Little Binland." We employ the second adjective in no belittleing second adjective in no behttieling sense; but it is suggested by way of comparison with the great Russian Empire, of which Finland is an in-

Empire, of which Finland is an in-tegral part.

The work heing done in Petrograd-started originally in Helsingfors-The inclusion in a Petrograd exhi-bition, by instruction of the Salation of stall for The Salation oright direction, and alloce that time there have been other stone which have been indicattee of steps which have been indicative of The Army counct be say have fully established its work in Russia proper; when it does, one of the dreams of The General will be

Salvation Army Slum Sisters at Work in Petrograd.

seeh any other religion which so

Metly suits our mouliks." The far The Army has not been able to test its suitability for the zar's dominions, but we feel confident that when that time arrives and its spirit is mathefistand, it will be found to oe well adapted to their

The hearts of Salvationists, al-ways sympathetic towards the mil-lions of the humblest peoples who own allegiance to the "little Father," agithe Case is affective. banthem, have been stirred with deep Rection in these days, especially dka had been abolished by Imperial decree throughout the Rusnathough our Officers are not yet at mork among the peasantry, the be-ginning of a good work is in pro-gress in Petrograd, where for some time past "The Salvation Messenpaper devoted to the inter-our Nork in Finland and the Riguian capital, has been circulated; rogain rapital, has been circulated; acid latterly, especially since the war, consistent workers have carried on a hopful work among the poor. We hope that this is but the beginning pade that this is out the beginning office work, which will prove more abd; more of high value from the standpoint... of helping and blessing the peoples of mighty Russia. For mighty indeed she is, as investigation proves. extent of her territory. The area of the Empire of Emperor Nicholas

Prom pictures in "The Salvation Messenger," the Russian "War Cry," of which 10,000 copies are sold monthly. The magnitude of the opportunity may be gauged by the mere citation of some of the figures concerning or some of the figure of the Russian Empire. The ethnological groups may be divided as follows. Aryans, Jews, Ural-Altaians, and Caucasians. Under the Aryans 5,094.40; Latiu and Teutonie, 3,509.46); Latiu and Teutonie, 3,509.46; Iramans, 1904.315; and 509.746; Iramans, 1904.315; and Gipsies, 27,126. Under the Ural-Altainar come the Finns, with a population of 5,653.60; Samoyedes, 1,5869; Turko-Tartars, 13,995.59; Turko-Tartars, 13,995.59; Urdo-Tartars, 13,995.59; Under the Caucasians come Georgians, with a population of 1,433-455, and Circassians, 1,091.782.

These varying groups are capable f division into the following reli-ious classifications: Orthodox gious classifications: Orthodox Greeks, 87,123,600; Dissenters, 2,-204,600; Armenian Georgians, 1,-179,240; Armenian Catholies, 38,840; Roman Catholics, 11,468,000; Lutherans, 3,572,650; Reformed Church, 85,400; Baptists, 38,140; Mennonites, 66,560; Anglicans, 4,180; other ites, 00,500; Angiicans, 4,180; other Christians, 3,980; Karaite Jews, 5,-2t5,800; Mohammedans, 13,907,000; Bijddhigts, 433,860; other non-Chris-tains, 285,300. The merest glance at the foregoing figures will, we suggest, convey at least-some faint idea of the colossal task confronting any worker for Christ who would help to take his h a vast multitude of: the children of men.

is the Empire of Emperor Nicholas $Z70,203 ganare miles, while the guildition is 173,359,900. The area for fifty provinces of European the fifty provinces of It is interesting to recall in a word

they go with the Gospel of Chief.
They are welcomed wherever, they go, and the people lister eagerly to their words, while their little paper,
The Salvation Messenger, is canned with curious interests. The scanned with curious interest. The homes of the workers who live in the crowded quarters of the city are visited by Comrades who bring no thing but cheer, and blessing to those to whom they go. "Up and down the stairs they go, along the corridors of the great buildings, and in and out of the crowded rooms, telling in simple, heartiet words the story of Jesus and awakening in many a breast memories of all but orgotten teaching.

It is, of course, impossible to de-cribe any one individual and say he is a typical of Russia. One might as well describe a single in-habitant of the British Empire and say he stands for all the peoples unwe have shown, the peoples of the Russian Empire are a great multitude who are of many races and religions; and though the Slav. nredominates, there are many other races who have the right to call themselves subjects of the Czar.

forgotten teaching.

themselves subjects of the Cran,
The Russian relasant, the moujik,
-pronounced (Webster) moo-shik
-as he is called, is as fairly representative as any. He it is who is fighting his Imperial master's battles millions strong to-day, He is a big, strong, simple-hearted, yet gentle fellow. The essence of loyalty, religious and full of comradeliness he is; so it seems to us to be ness he is; so it seems to us to be the very one to whom, in years to come. The Army is likely to be a means of much spiritual help, and blessing. He is of the kind who will share a last crust with a friend— or even an enemy, if he be in need. or even an enemy, if he be in need. He is by nature religious, and now that the Czar has abolished yodka from the land, yodka which sometimes transformed the gentle moutik-into a fierce, trueufent fellow, there is greater hope that a brightey day will dawn for him; and we suggest that the brighter day will come all the sooner if The Army is able to send to him its Officers with the message of Salvation.

We suggest that the time has come when Comrades who desire to dedicate their lives for the service of Christ within the Czar's dominions, should at once begin to learn the Russian language, familiarize them-Russian language, familiarize them-selves with its peoples and man-ners and eustoms and beliefs, situdy-their-literature, and, so far as, pos-sible, get into their very hearts, and then with all their knowledge at dis-posal, and with their hearts full of enthusiasm for the work they would do, offer themselves for Officership. It may be that this short article in itself will act as a spur to some to do as we suggest and lead them to dedicate their lives to the service of Christ in the far-stretching domin-ion of the Russian Empire.—All the

COMMISSIONER ESTILL.

Aids Rescuers in Fearful Eastland Tragedy.

In the work of receus and resuscitation in connection with the easteamer Eastland, at Chicago, Army workers co-operated with the auth-orities. Staff-Captains Issae and dead and dying. Commissioner, and Mrs. Estill evidenced profound conterm and appointed a contingent, under Brigadier, Stillwell, red open pure hot coffee and other refresh ref.
ments for the party offerederes,
These efforts were much apprecia ated by the brave fren,

On Thursday, July 20, Brigader and Mrs. Green, with their dash ter, Minnie, had their final farred meeting at Vancouver L. all the diy.

meeting at Vancouver I, all the cit, Corps uniting for the occasion. A large crowd gathered in the Citadel to bid good bye to our Divi-sional Commanders. The Chancel-lor, Staff-Captain George Smith, was in command, and from the first adin command, and from the first ad-mirably gauged and guided the tet-ings and sympathics of the add-ence. After the opening song Ma. Adjutant. Gosling and Adjutant. Bristow led in prayer. Envoy Col. lier gave out the second song tak-ing necessity while design on the ing occasion while doing so to reler ing occasion winte doing so to reter in appreciative terms to the work of the Brigadier, Adjutant Meikle, of Vancouver II., was called upon to voice the sentiment of the wopressed her most was the bright. cheerful spirit and sunny welcom our leaders ever carried short with them, and also the extreme personal kindness which was continually be-ing manifested in little acts behind the transt

An interesting part of the ma ecedings was that of Ensign Wright, Vancouver 11., presenting an address to the Brigadier on behalf of the No. I. Locals, Bandsmen, Solthe No. I. Locals, Bandanien, Sa-diers and friends. Adjuste 66-ling spoke very feelingly of the pleasant personal, relation-ships that had existed between he and the Brigadier, during the twenty months he had been working in association with bin. Staff-Captain Smith also spoke briefly of his experience during the nine months he had worked unker the Brigadier, and very boutingly. referred to what had been said about personal kindness.

Sister Minnie Green, who is quickly developing into a soloist of no mean ability, sang very effective. ly. Then Mrs. Green spoke, and ly. Then Mrs. Green spoke, and the Brigadier, although weak in body, delivered a most appropriate address, taking occasion to thank words.

On Tuesday, August 3, Vancourer
I. Band met at the Citadel and escorted our Comrades to the depot, where by special arrangement car-ried through by Adjutant Briston, the large company of Soldiers and friends were permitted to go on the platform and give Brigadler and Wirs. Green a hearty send-off.—G.A.

COMMISSIONER RICHARDS.

(Continued from Page 9.) in the Halifax Division. missioner gave a very helpful talk, missioner gave a very helput talk, after which we proceeded to S. Matthew's Presbyterian Chutch, where Mayor Kelley, on behalf of North Sydney, tendered a welcome to the Commissioner. The rain deposits of the Commissioner of the commissioner of the same deposits of the Commissioner. eended in torrents, but a large congregation gathered and the meeting was a really splendid one. On Thesday the Commissioner went to 57d. day the Commissioner went to 379-ncy Mines. An inspiring sand alton-short Soldiers' meeting preceded the Welcome meeting which was held in the Methodist Church. The church was packed, and the Com-missioner was suitably introduced by Mr. Johnston, a Stanch Army, friend. The Commissioner sgala-

EWS NOTES and COMMENT TORONTO EXHIBITION. N'unprecedented demand for space at the Canadian The woman who does not lose her head in an extremity is always a treasure (says Marion Harland in "The Congregationalist"). The National Exhibition marks treasure (says Marion Harland in "The Congregationalist"). The mother who, in the absence of a doctor, does not waste valuable time in weeping and in wringing her hands, but knows enough to do the next thing, to hold a broken limb in position, to put a convulsed child in the thirty-seventh year of the Fair at Toronto. The emerical exhibits are more merous that for years past, and delire departments are egully as overeign find an exhibit stand-both. This is a sure barmeter of continuin outside districts. This will be a first produced a first produced the control of the position, to put a convulsed child in a hot bath, to give an emetic if he is choking with croup, to exclude the air from a bad burn, to apply ice to the head of a delirious patient, mustard to the chest of one suddenly atand hot formentations to the abd and hot iomentations to the abdo-men of any one suffering from intes_ tinal disturbances, often spares her patient serious illness and some-times saves his life.

OUR DUTY TO THE BLIND.

with a million.

FROM Vienna, from Paris, and arrangements that have been made blinded in the war. sodies blinded in the war. The French report states that a larger proportion of the combatants have been and will be, made blind in this sar than in any previous war, on second of the difference in weapons account of the difference in weapons and in the character of the fighting. Outside has provided amply for the instruction of blind children, but his not been a leader in provision for aneliorating the condition of the adult blind. With the added chims of the soldiers who will come home from Europe sightless, action in this matter cannot be long deared Our blind soldiers and fellow cifices must not be left to wear out when timely aid and proper instructheir places as useful members of the community. The Ontario School for the Blind at Brantford is mainined for the education of children whose sight is so defective that they and be taught in the regular pubic schools. This School is not in-tended for adults, and it cannot do that is required for the class above referred to, without reducing, if not stroying, its efficacy as an instrucof of the young. Bonn fide residents and the young. Bona fide residents of Ontario, between the ages of what and twenty-one, who cannot be read ordinary type-without inthe read ordinary type-without inthe read ordinary type-without inthe second of the secon made to the Principal, H. F. Gardi-ner, Brantford, in time to have all trangaments completed before the opening of the session in September.

LONDON'S TOY FAIR

WING to the war the great trade ia toys which was formerly ear-not on al Leipsig Fair, in Germany, was this year transferred to London.

ration of the property of the

THE NEXT THING HAT girl will get along all light. She always knows how, the next thing," said an elder-y woman of a practical young one.

The woman who does not lose her bead in an extremity is always a streasure (save Marion Harland in training in machine shops for treating ordinary accidents. Such promising results have been reported from the shops that general use of the paste has been started in the British Navy.

MOTOR LAUNDRIES IN WAR

MOTOR LAUNDRIES IN WAR MOTOR-DRAWN laundries oper, Mated in conection with field hos-pitals are the latest features in the European war, the equipment for each laundry being carried on a powerful motor truck carries a steam mangle, which is removed steam mangle, which is removed when the launder is to be energed

The first trailer carries a complete steam plant with boiler, turbine, drying cabinet, and disinfecting tank:

some distance over a wire, and re-corded for the reading of one un-seen by the patient. Human ingenu-ity works marvels, but beyond the ity works marvels, but beyond the fluctuating heart throbs are the thought waves of love, pity, passion, fear, to make the heart beast fastfor slow, and somewhere even these thoughts are registering themselves. The wireless telegraphy of the piby sical and spiritual world is around by everywhere, and the silence is full of sound and the secrety of witnessess

OIL LOCOMOTIVES

On the mountain section of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, oil-burning locomotives are now being used. They are of the most modern type, and are operating from Jasper to Prince Rupert, over seven hundred and nineteen miles of main

Especial interest attaches to the installation of this class of motive power, as it marks the first use of Canada, Great oil storage tanks have been erected at various points along the line for supplying locomotives with the necessary fuel.

LETTERS TO THE WOUNDED NSTRUCTIONS on how to address letters to wounded soldiers have been issued by the Red Creas

Society. Letters sent to men in he pital through the army post-offi do not reach their desination. Th are returned to the writers, for has been found quite impractically by the post office to trace soldier from one hospital to another from one hospital to another. When men are known to be ill or wounded, letters for them should be sent care of the Red Cross Society. Owing to its special facilities, it is more likely to be able to trace the wounded than is any other agencia. For soldiers in the hospital this, correct address is: The Canadigat Red Cross Society, 4. Cockspury Street, London, England. Full discretely and the soldiers is the hospital this call care is the soldiers in the soldiers.

Street, London, England. Full details of the regimental number and regiment, together with the address of the hospital should be given. This words care of Army Post Offices should not be added. If so, the leto? ter will probably go astray.

NEW BRITISH AIRSHIP.

A NEW type of airship recently.

A patented in England, of which of several are being built for the Bries tish military authorities, accordings to report, embodies an attempt to to report, embodies an attempt the combine the advantages of the rigits or Zeppelin type of dirigible witho those of the non-rigid type.

In this new aircraft (says Populars Machanics) the clear-shaped outer air-tight covering contains a number of gas bags which, when filled with gas, completely fill the envelope, exca panding it to its elastic limit, and sort rendering the whole structure rigids enough to navigate accurately. As-the bags become deflated, through leakage or condensation, air isse pumped into the outer envelopes pumped into the outer enveloped thus maintaining the necessary right dity. The main advantages claimed: are simplicity of construction and ease of transportation when deflated:

The General recently conducted The General recently conductive volutioning campaign at Chatham.

Mayor Paine and Rear-Admiral Gaunt paid warm tributes to the "Fighting Church."

Mrs. Booth is to preside at a spepars, mooth is to preside at a spe-cial Conference at International Headquarters to decide impor-points in connection with Section of the Life

Seenes at Clarkson's on the Day of the Scout Rally. (1) Scouts learning the Semaphore Alphabet. (2) Captain and Mrs.

Pryde and assistants preparing for the blg drive on the provisions.

(3) Scouts practicing first aid to the apparently drowned. while the second earries the washing FIRST-AID PASTE IRST-AID service to the injured

IRST-AID service to the injured has just been given a new weapon, which promises to increase its efficiency enormously. This is simply a paste that will keep a wound from becoming infected in the minutes or hours-ing orchans even two or three hours—or perhaps even two or three days—before a doctor arrives to give regular treatment. An ugly tear or a deep eut oray be suffered by a workman in a shop or in the woods, and the wound may become badly contaminated unless some kind of quiek action is taken. The paste, jammed down into the open wound, will stave off frouble during the ny hours of delay. This first-aid paste was devised imarily for the wounded in the European war, because experience has shown that the longer the delay in treatment the more likely is the wound to be fatal. Though the paste machine with centifugal drying and such supplies as soap, aoda, coal and gasoline are carried on the last trailer

When the laundry is in operation the trailers are arranged in the shape of a horseshoe, and are usually cov-ered by a tent, while the motor truck, with the steam mangle retruck, with the steam mangle re-moved, is used for carrying laundry to and from the hospital. The capa-city of the outit is about three thousand pounds of assorted laundry per day.

RECORDING HEART BEATS

CERTAIN hospitals, we are told, are now furnished with wonderful and delicate instruments for the testing of heart beats, by which the faintest irregularity may be detect-ed. The record may even be earried

ON-THE-BRINK

THE STORY OF A YOUNG COUNTRY GIRL'S ADVENTURE IN A BIG CITY

PROBLEMS OF FINANCE

N Monday morning the two girls set out to search for ng west and Elsie choosing ing west and Elsie choosing the eastern part of the city. Harry White had again rendered them good service by giving them the addresses of several small business establishments where there were good possibilities of work being Rather to their own surprise, they Rather Io their own surprise, they were both successful in obtaining employment: Elsie as a store clerk in the hosiery department of a dry goods store, and Rosie as a general assistant in a little shop where fancy goods, confectionery, toys and papers were sold. The wages were papers were sold. The wages were yery, very small, and Elsie sighed as she communicated another long season of most rigid economy in order to make ends meet. Both girls were to make ends meet. Both girls were glad to be working again, however, after the period of stress and anxiety they had passed through.

From their first week's wages they managed to pay the rent of men room and squeeze out a donar each towards paying oil their big debt to the clothing store. The agent grumbled a good deal at the smallness of the amount, and said he would expect more next time. The girls found, however, that they were utterly mable to continue the paycold winter days were now coming on, and they felt their need of more substantial fare than bread and weak tea. They often had to take the ear to and from work also, on ac-count of had weather, and this help-ed to cut into their very slender

The result was that they got further behind than ever in their pay-ments to the clothing company, and one day each of them received a letone day each of them received a let-ter in which it was pointed out to them that the longer they took to pay off their indeltedness the more they would have to pay, as the in-terest on the amount practically loaned them kept growing.

A hint was also thrown out that if they did not soon make a further payment there would be trouble of some sort, though just what would happen was not clearly stated. It was sufficient, however, to thor-oughly alarm the girls, and they imagined that they were already un-der the shadow of a prison cell.

"Whatever shall we do?" said Eisie. "We must hold these people elists. "We must note these people off somehow. I could pawn my bracelet and my watch, I suppose; but I hate to part with them, be-out I hate to part with them, because they are presents."

"Why not pawn half of our clothes to pay for the other half," said Rosie; "or, better still, perhaps the firm we bought them off will take some back."

"That wouldn't help us much," said Elsie; "they'd only allow us a fraction of the cost on what we reployers are so particular about one's appearance, and it's almost as much shabby."

"That's true," replied Rosie, "we

"That's true," replied Rosie, "we must keep up appearances, even if we haven't a cent to jugle on our tombstone. Say, a brilliant idea has just struck me, Eisie. What about Jack Corby? You say he used to spend lots of money on you every week wouldn't he lend us some jink if he knew how hard up we were?

ii he knew how hard up we were? He's aeted pretty mean since you were siek, but perhaps he'd do you willing to pay, said Elsie. "I met him the other day, and some one must have been telling him we were hard up against it, for he made me an offer which any self-respecting girl would turn down." Rosie. "What was it may as Phil meant to

"What was it?" asked Rosie.
"About the same as Phil meant to make to you," said Elsie, "only he put it in a very blunt and coarse way. He said he couldn't afford to marry me, but he'd give me some-thing every week, and introduce me to some other fellows if I'd

"If you'd what?" queried Rosie, "Oh, well, if I'd do as he wanted me to," said Elsie. "Muff said, he's as big a villain, I guess, as that precious Phil. I tell you, I felt like slapping him in the face right on the street."

"Pity you didn't," said Rosie, who was truly horrified at this exposure of her friend's beau, whom she had always thought of, from Elsie's glowing description in her letters, as gowing description in the letters as a very model of what a young city gentleman ought to be. Her illusions as to the life of a working girl in a big city had about disappeared by this time. Hard

The thought came to her that this amount was just what she work, long hours, scant pay, a strug-gle to live respectably, pleasures hought at the expense of health and strength, dangers lurking on every side—this was the reality; and it side—this was the reality; and it she had had when in the country. she had had when in the country.

"I guess the watch and bracelet will have to go, then, Elsie," she said. "I see no other way of raissaid. "I see no other way of raising money unless something unexpected occurs."

"Then I'll pwn them to-morrow," said Elsie; 'it isa't like selling them for good, you know. When I'm well off again I ean get them back."

ick." "Oh. I'm glad of that." said Rosie. "Then I hope you'll soon be well off, my dear. But whatever am I to do? my dear. But whatever am I to do I've got nothing to pawn, but an old Ingersoil watch, which dad bought me once when he had a generous fit on, and I don't suppose I'd get five eems for that."

"Why not write to your dad and ask him to help you out?" suggested

Elsic.
"Oh, dear, no!" said Rosic. "The "Oh, dear, no!" said Rosie. "The folks at home would worry themselves to a shadow if they thought I was not getting on all right. I make out that I'm still at the big store, you know, and am having a swell time of it. Oh, no! I can't ow writing home for money." "You're too proud, Rosie," said folks, "but wait till Christmas comes and you have to be saided from afar will be to world. I'm bet you'll write home will be to world.

off, and I'll bet you'll write home to pa in a hurry to send you one up from the farm."

from the farm."
"I'd go back and marry George hefore I'd do that," said Rosie. "That is, if, he'd have me now," she added.
By which it may be surmised that Rosie was repenting of her hasty and ill-advised action in spurning her faithful country swain.

When Rosie went to work next morning she was oppressed with the thought that something dreadful would happen soon if she could not quickly obtain sufficient money to satisfy the demands of the clothing firm to which she was so deeply indebted.

"I do wish I'd never listened to "I do wish I'd never listened to Elsie's advice," she said, "Here I am, over fifty dollars in debt, and not a red cent to spare to pay it off. In future I'll pay eash for all I get or go without. You don't catch me up this street again."

The debt worried Rosie insistently

all that day, and she turned over in her mind many plans for making a little extra money. But none of them seemed to be practicable. During her dinner hour she anxiously scanher dinner hour she anxiously scan-ned the advertisement columns of a newspaper in the hope that she might come across some offer of work she could do in her spare time at home, by getting up early and re-ctiring late. But there were only the usual advertisements of book pub-lishers and patent-medicine makers, standard of the columns of the columns of the columns.

lishers and patent-medicine makers, offering large sums daily for the selling of their wares.

She and Elishe had once answered some of these, but found that they were required to go from door to door canvasing for orders, and that a tremendous amount of selling had to be done before they commake a decent, living at le, threw the paper away was an a tient gesture, and were back for dradgery in the abon.

The state of the sta and placed the ten-dollar bill on the

and placed the ten-dollar fill on the pile.

Hurrying back into the shop to proceeded to give the custom the change, but found she had broad two five-dollar hills, instead of as She gave the customer the change and was about to lake back the error five-dollar hill, when the thought what the change to her that this amount as just what she wanted to make up the over-the weekly navuents as her overdue weekly payments on her elothing account.

elothing account.

At this moment her employer causinto the shop, He had here disided away for a few moments by side. It was a very small business the It was a very small business the Add Roseie with the only astinate, she had only been taken on became the employer side was tengoin unable to help in the shop. Very rapidly a number of thought ran through the gifty mind. He is an account of the property of the pr ran through the girl's miad. Her-employer had not seen her in his-office; very probably he had so s-spicion that she had ever left the shop; he would not miss the many for some time, perbaps, and wood then think he had made some misthen think he had made some ma-take in counting. Her need of this five dollars was much more uged than his; she would borrow it of him—yes, that was it borrow it without his knowledge, it is irre; but all the same she meant to my it back some time, so it was not really stealing.

Rosic pocketed the five-dollar in...

(To be continued.)

THE TWELFTH

Comrades from Many Corps Vist Winnipeg Beach.

The twelfth annual Pienic of the Winnipeg Salvationists was held in Thursday, July 29th. As, is ill Thursday, July 29ts. As, in sufference years, the picnic was seen held at the now famous and etter favourite spot—Winnipeg Betch. Along train left like C.P.R. depet at ong train left the C.P.R. depet at 9.45 in the morning. The weather did not look any too hight to brail with, but as the day weat on the weather brightened, and it turned out one of the happiest and man weather brightened, and at out one of the happies and and pleasant days in the season pleasant days in the season pleasant days in the season presented and Soldiers and interference and presented and Soldiers and other points. The Citade Baut was for in goodly humbers, and other prival at the beach delighted the crowd with music, as also along in the verning, when the Commission who had come down by the Divisional Commander the present of the present o

FEST PESTIVAL

from Page 0.) the manner of our giv-

who manner of our giveather all the state of the state costom that might wen ne loday was the remem-of the poor. Those old Jew-didn't clean up the fields didn't clean up the fields. They, left the corners and suggestor those who weren't off at themselves. And no-conted it a dishonor to go place up these remands, the case the great time of re-bofer the Lord. Every me for pietes drew water in a russi from the pool of a careful it to the Paralle And all sus southwest of the major. the de twies sang to music a Palms of Thanksgiving. It in Palms 113 to 118. The less of them all is, "O, give as into the Lord, for He is a feelf mercy endureth for-buy evening lights were burned for large golden candlesticks, it he chief men of the nation and round them, holding lighted the How would a 'special go' read take in these days, I won-or day of the least, too, all sury day of the least, too, and prople passed round the altar min. Hosannah!' holding in the hind a citron and in the left suche of palm, willow and myrtle. On the seventh day this was done seven times, so you see what I meant when I remarked that the times have changed and the manner of our giving

"But, though that is so, and we largely give to God's cause now in coin of the realm, I do not see why we cannot make our Harvest. Thanksgiving Services a real festival of praise to God for the mercies and blessings of the past year. This is the underlying thought of the whole Effort anyway, and if our people really eath the spirit of it there will undoubtedly be a great outpouring of gifts and a great sea-son of rejoicing at every Corps." "What are the dates for this sole.

"What are the dates for this cele-bration, Colonel?" "It will take place either from Sept. 11 to 14, or from Sept. 18 to 21, according to local conditions." "What is done with the money raised by this Effort?"

"It is used entirely within our own Territory. Part of it goes to pay for the Training of Officers and part to the Officers' Assistance Find. Another part is used for repairing our properties, while the remainder is available for local Corps' puris available for local Corps' pur-poses. All these things are very necessary, you will admit, for the upkeep of our work. The Self Denial money, which mainly goes to the Foreign Field, may be said to be used for lengthening our cords; the Harvest Festival money is for the purpose of strengthening our stakes. And, as you doubtless know, you cannot greatly lengthen the cords unless the stakes are in good and strong. So my final word to all Comrades is this: Start right to an Comrages is this: Start right away to pray, plan and work for the success of the Effort, and keep at it till victory crowns your labors, and may God bless you."

PROMOTED TO GLORY

Brother James Stuart, Listowel, Ontario

Brother James Stuart, of this Corps, who for the last thirty years has been a faithful Warrior in The Army, has been called to his re-ward. Our late Contrade was for some time the Treasurer of the Corps. The last passage of Scripture he was heard to quote before the call canne, was, "Be still and know that I am God," which he spoke in a faint whisper. Our Brother had been confined to a bed of sickness for the last seven months, but he never nurranired, but always said, "Thy will he done." ont aways said, "Thy will be dode." The funeral took place on July 19th and was conducted by Captain A. Ashliy, of St. Mary's, assisted by Lientenants H. Ashliy and J. Rowland. The memorial service on the following Sunday evening, conducted by Lieutenauts Ashby and Rowland, resulted in one surrender, LOOK OUT FOR HIM.

(Continued from Page 11.) Continued from Fage 11.7.

That stuff you have now is neck frilling for ladies collars. It is a special line carried by The Army and cannot be obtained anywhere else. The price is ten cents a yard and the collary of the stress and the stress of the stress and the stress of the stre else. The price is ten cents: is the most serviceable quantity to get at one time. I expect to sell quite a lot of it.

"Now you come to the Mottoes, That one entitled "The Home Beau tifid," is one that Salvationist par-ents will want to buy to decorate the walls of their homes."

There were many other things in that wonderful grip which we have not space to mention. If you want to know them all, have a look for yourself when the Major comes your

"Tell the readers of The Cry." concluded the Major, "that I am out to take orders for everything sup-plied by the Trade — Uniforms, piled by the Trade - Uniforms, hoors, cans, bouncts, jerseys, waterproofs cans, nonnets, jerseys, water-proofs — anything they desire in that line, I will take their measure-ments and book their order. If a Band wants new justrements or repairs made to old ones, or if they want a brand new set of uniforms. why just apply to me.

"Another line I shall carry is good "Another line I shall carry is good serviceable watches for Officers and Soldiers. They will vary in price, of course, but are all absolutely guaranteed. Now for some good, brisk business!"

Brigadier William Haines has put before the British Commissioner proposals for the extension of Salvation Army work amongst the

The Chance you have been waiting for!

A Selection of Salvation Army Trade brought to your door.

Now then to have your needs supplied as never before!

MAJOR McGILLIVRAY, the Genial Old Eastern Warrior. has been appointed to visit

The Maritime Provinces

With an up-to-date Stock of Uniforms of all descriptions, Books, Badges and all other requisites in Army warfare.

DO NOT MISS THIS OPPORTUNITY! He will attend the

HALIFAX COUNCILS

Use your Trade and "War Cry" Coupons.

Uniforms (Male and Female) can be measured on the spot. Blue or Grey.

DON'T DELAY

Evan, 31 A. Bb.; Manchester. 47. Evan, 31 A. Bb.; Manenester, 47.
Come every soul by sin oppressed,
There's mercy with the Lord,
And He will surely give you sest
By trusting in His word.

Chorus Oh, Jesus, my Saviour with welcome sinners home, Sinner don't delay.

Yes, Jesus is the Truth, the Way That leads you into rest;
Believe on Him without delay,
And you are fully blest.

Come, then, and join the holy band, And on to glory go, Where joys intmortal flow.

MERCY FOR YOU. Tunes-Sagina, 118, Ab. Bb.; Madrid, 117.

Weary and sad and full of sin,
A heart bowed down with grief and shame;

'A storm without, a hell within,
'A conscience-stricken, helpless soul; Christ Iosus can your sins forgive, And you with Him in Heaven may ran atta live

Then come to Him, poor guilty one, And cast yourself low at His feet; Renounce all sin, come to His throne, Meet lesus at the Mercy-seat. Praise God, that mercy found out

NEVER MIND, GO ON. Tune-Never Mind, Go On.

In the fight, say, sloes your heart grow weary?

Do you find your path is rough and thorny,

'And above the sky is dark and

Never mind, go on.

Lay aside all fear, and onward pressing, Bravely fight and God will give His blessing, Though the war at times may prove distressing, Never mind, go on.

Chorus When the road we tread is rough, let us bear in mind.

When downhearted look away to Jesus, Who for you did shed His blood

niosi precious,
Let us say, though all the world should hate us,
Never mind, go on.
Do your best in fighting for your

For His sake fear not to lose men's favor, If beside you should a Comrade waver, Never mind, go on.

COME UNTO ME.

Tune-"Oh, Happy Day."

Dear Father, I do pray that Thou Wilt place Thy mark upon my brow. A mark that all the world may see, And know I've given my heart to

Then may I daily strive to win One wandering soul from paths of Help them to walk the narrow way. That leads to peace at close of day.

Oh, blessed hand, I feel it now, That placed the mark upon my brow, The mark that only those may win Who turn to Christ and flee from sin, lever faithful be.

Lord, may I ever faithful be.

Be ours for aye, all round the round ing an account of the sound in the soun

Canadian Anniversary CONGRESSES

PRELIMINARY NOTICE

Sept. 29 - Oct 3 Halifax Oct. 13 - Oct 20. Toronto

Oh, blessed Cifrist, who died for me, Who shed His blood on Calvary. Who said to all lost sinners, five, My life for thee I freely give. Come unto Me, come unto Me, I came, and now my soul is free.

I came and now my soul is free.

-Mrs. D. Turrill, Chatham, Ont.

THE PRAYER OF THE EMPIRE

May be sung to tune of Kipling's Recessional, with refrain added. God of all wisdom, power and

God of all wisuom, period might, Whose everlasting arm is strong, Shield, guide, protect and lead aright,
'This be our only battle song.

Our Hope in peace, our Help in war, Our refuge always and our Lord, May Thine own banner go before And strengthen those who grip the sword.

No thought of fame or glory fills Each stalwart, loyal, manly breast, As over oceans, plains and hills Our men rise equal to the test.

The test of loyalty but shows How staunch and good and brave and true

Peace-loving men, when, met by foes. For country's sake will battle

They shrink to kill the living souls, Their brothers in the sight of God, And as the din of battle rolls,

Would fain throw down war's iron

But country calls, and loved ones dear,
And homes and liberty remain

The Heritage of those who fear
No foe, but fight their rights to gain,

Upon the distant battlefield, Encourage every noble heart, Fill each with courage ne'er to yield, Nor with their freedom e'er to Bless every stalwart arm which bears

A wounded soldier from the field: Bless skilful hand which for them cares, Sad souls by great Physician

Oh Lord, of mercy, love and power, Speak to the sorrowing ones at home In word of hope, in lonely hour Lead them to look to Thee alone.

Oh, Lord, we pray make war to ccase,

The flag "Salvation" be unfurled,
Then may a reign of Love and Peace

WE ADE Looking for You

We will surch for mutile gegens in any bar when the surch for mutile gegens in any bar avgust in difficulty. Address, Collection, Coll. ACODE and Newmond Street West, Toronto, Our Delice should be used with every case, where possible, to held every edge-say, in case of vigo-posities, to held every edge-say, in case of vigo-sity, and the collection of the collection of Officers, Soldiers, and Friends are requested to add to be judget greaterly from the work of information congruing any case, alongs shalling moure and number of years.

ROSS, ROLLAND, No. 18858. Age 25, height 5 ft., weight 180 fbs., blue-grey eyes, dark brown hair. Last heard of in Sauli Ste. Marie, Ont.

v Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.
DUVALL, JAMES, No. 10408 (alias ENNETH), Canadian, sge 16, beight
It. 6 in, weight 145 lbs., fair comtexion, brown hair, blue eyes, single, ainding tilgh School. Micsing since tec. 3rd. 1914. Last known address;
incee, Ont. Onty son. Has a nervous sunces, Ont. Only son. Has a rervous disposition. SIDNEY RICHARD JAMES, No. 1951. 29 years of age, helgal of the care of the completion of the completion of the completion of the completion address 200 Ming Street West. Zeronic, Ont. Left there about 4 months of the completion of t

Missing since Feb., 1913. Resurve-manious.
WATPERS, BRB, THOS., nes RUTH ARMSTRONG, No. 1959. Ago 23. Left, home January lat with her beyond, and yes, sur over right car (under hair) and the on left side of nose. Baby has grey yes and hair is included to be rea. Grey yes and hair is included to be rea.

grey syes and haft is inclined to be realcont. Hashand synkious.

NORTH. ALFRIDD TROMAS, No.
16621. Ago & height of L. Din. weight
16621. Ago & height of L. Din.
16622. Ago & height of L. Din.
1662

Falls.
RUDMAN, SAMUEL, No. 10567. Single, age 51, helpit 5 ft, pray bair, dark eves and comporton, English. On arrival in Cenada was a caligary laborer, Missing sines September, 1914. Last known address: 49 Singles St., Toronto. Our Rudman is forfineriv of McLaham.

COMMR. RICHARDS

Elliston.—August at.
Bonavista.—August 22-1.
Clarenville.—August 22-1.
Clarenville.—August 22-1.
Cambo.—August 32-1.
Exploits.—August 35.
Mortons Harbour.—August 37.
Twillingate.—August 39.
Herring Neck.—August 39.
Horwood.—August 37.
Comfort Cove—September 1.
Campbellton.—September 2. Elliston.-August or New Glasgow.—September 2 New Glasgow.—September 4-5.

(Brigadiers Adby and Morehen of accompany.)

COLONEL & MRS. GASKI Windsor, Sept. 4-5

BRIG. MORRIS-Peterboro, Ac 21-22; Military Camp (Niaga on-the-Lake). Aug 20

MAJOR AND MRS. MOORE Oshawa, Aug. 21-22

MAJOR AND MRS. CRICHTO -Thornhill, Aug. 22, MAJOR McGILLIVRAY - No

MAJOR McGILLIVRAY L. Freel L. Aug. 21-22: Shelmal L. Aug. 21-23: Shelmal Aug. 23: Woodsteek, R.B., A. 24: St. Stephen, Aug. 25: Stephen, Aug. 26: Freedricton, Aug. 29: St. John II., Sp. 3: Mendouth, Aug. 29: St. John II., Sp. 3: Charlottelown, Sp. 1; Andress, Sept. 2; Sommers. Sept. 3: Charlottelown, Sp. 1, Picton, Sept. 3: Charlottelown, Sp. 1, Picton, Sept. 3: Sp. 3:

MRS. MAJOR FRAZER-Ther hill, Aug. 29.

Staff-Captain White-Wallaceber Aug. 23; London II., Aug. 28-

NEW LEADER WELCOMED

The services of Sunday, July II at Clinton took the form of a favell. Captain Henderson, who been with us for three months.

Veil: Captain increasing was been with us for three months, been transferred to Cauda We On Sunday, July: 18th, we we comed our new leader, Captain death of the comment of

TWO ENROLLED.

The meetings of Sunday, Jay were a source of great blession the Listowel Comrades. At a two new Soldiers were card under the Flag. Since we hastarted Holliness Meetings the search been three persons out seeds have been three persons ou

GAZETTE OF THE SALVATION ADMY IN CANADA AND NEWFOUNDLAND

Headquarters: 101 Queen Victoria St., London, E.C.

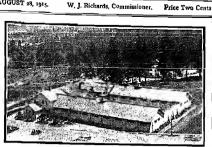

No. 48, 8 W. Bramwell Booth, General.

Canada East Headquarters: James & Albert Sts., Toronto, Ont,

TORONTO, AUGUST 28, 1915.

ninster Jail, where the murderer was executed.

Okata Prison Farm, where S. A. services are held every Sunday.

ADJUTANT H. C. HABKIRK INTERVIEWING A PRISONER AT OKALA PRISON FARM.—See Dage Thee.